

ARTISTIC EVENTS

This is a listing of gallery exhibits and other art-related events that are continuing, and of galleries that run regular shows. Openings and other events are listed in Thursday's Arts and Entertainment section. Send announcements of Oakland County art gallery exhibitions to: Mary Klemic, Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 805 E. Maple, Birmingham 48009; fax (810) 644-1314.

INSTALLMENTS II
To Sept. 16 — An exhibit of temporary outdoor sculpture continues in Municipal Park, north of Walton/University and between Ludlow and Main in downtown Rochester. Call the Paint Creek Center for the Arts at (810) 651-4110 for more information.

THE ART GALLERY
To Sept. 17 — The local artists cooperative at Great Oaks Mall, Walton and Livernois, Rochester Hills, presents a special show, "Scenes of Oakland County." This is an all-media presentation of artists' views of county locations, events and people. Also, Henryk Olbrot is the featured artist for September. Olbrot works in watercolor and oil paint, favoring abstract themes and contemporary treatment of fruit and other subjects. Call (810) 651-1570.

CRANBROOK ART MUSEUM
Through Sept. 17 — The 1995 Graduate Summer Exhibition continues at 1221 N. Woodward, Bloomfield Hills, featuring the work of 71 artists from the departments of architecture, ceramics, design, fiber, metalsmithing, painting, photography, printmaking and sculpture. Call (810) 645-3323.

DETROIT INSTITUTE OF ARTS
Through Sept. 17 — "Enigmas and Abstractions: Prints and Drawings from the Permanent Collection" continues in the Schwartz Graphic Arts Galleries at 5200 Woodward. The display features a selection of 50 abstract or non-representational prints and drawings, including Robert Rauschenberg's "Bellini" series, the portfolio "Centre Noeuds" by Matia and works by Jasper Johns, James Rosenquist, Richard Diebenkorn, Helen Frankenthaler, Elizabeth Murray, Jackson Pollock, Susan Rothenberg and others. Call (313) 853-7900.

ASSOCIATION ART CENTER
To Sept. 17 — "Symbols, Rituals, Icons," a return engagement by artists shown in the gallery within the past 20 years, continues at 117 W. Liberty, Ann Arbor. Featured are Barbara Dorchon, painting; Ted Ramsay, mixed media installation; and Richard Washington, mixed media.

CIRCLE GALLERY
Through Sept. 20 — Rene Gruau is the focus of an extensive exhibit in the gallery at the Somerset Collection, 2801 W. Big Beaver at Cooldidge. Gruau began his work in fashion illustration in the 1940s and 1950s, and became best known for the bold yet sophisticated artistic form that he gave to the radically new sensual styling in women's fashions after World War II.

THE ARTCOFAE
Through September — Works by some of the finest photographers in the area are on display at 211 E. Washington, Ann Arbor. Featured are the impressionistic black and white photos by Monte Nagler, the panoramic photos of Brad LaPayne's city skylines, nature photos by Phil Rusten, black and white photos by J. Robinson, contemporary crystal images by Howard Garrett, and photos by John Galbo — who photographs the reflections of subjects in a distorted antique mirror — and Norm Darwish — who develops photos to have a special graininess, then sepiatones and hand colors them. Call (313) 665-6464.

INTERNATIONAL ARTISTS GALLERY
To Oct. 13 — The gallery at 27 Grand River East, Detroit, presents Chris Turner, Carolyn Pare, Sam Vogel Novels and Dug Rutan in a joint effort of empowerment through art. Novels shows paintings that celebrate the creativity of the South African Ndebele women, and sculpture.

Pare's installation consists of a colorful clay toy pieces that invite visitors to participate in her art. Turner returns with his latest representations of "rawness and spirituality." Call (313) 961-1188.

STEWART & STEWART
Stewart & Stewart, 5571 Wing Lake Road, Bloomfield Hills, announces "Tulip Angelique," a new screenprint by realist painter Jack Beal, and "Monhegan Island" and "Highway 55," two new screenprints by marine and miniature portrait painter Ann Mikolowski. Beal is best known for his paintings, murals and fine draftsmanship. The New York artist drew "Tulip Angelique" in the pink border garden of the Stewart's terrace near their studio. Mikolowski lives and works in Ann Arbor; her recurring themes and metaphors for life's travels are shorelines and roads. She created her screenprints in the historical country setting of what was in the 1920s the gardeners' quarters of the Book family summer estate once owned by Edsel Ford in Bloomfield Township. Stewart & Stewart is a member of the International Fine Print Dealers Association. Transparent colors, rarely seen in screenprints, and painterly techniques characterize its prints. For visuals or a private viewing appointment, call (810) 626-5248.
