WELCOME THE NEW YEAR WITH PRAYER AND FIRM RESOLVE
In a few days, it will be time to take down the old calendar and hang up a new one, which will symbolize the turning over of a new leaf and the beginning of a new chapter in our lives. Yes, there will be the New Year's Eve parties or just get-togethers with family and friends, but this should also be a time for reflection. We should look back at our accomplishments of failures in the year about to be concluded and also look ahead to the coming year that's right on our doorstep, waiting to be admitted.
Let us make our plans for the next 12 months, as well as at least a realistic list of resolutions — and vow to stick to them. One of them should be to attend your House of Worship as regularly as possible, and ask God to help us live up to all the rest of them on the list.
"Let us give our words perfection, and faith toward God." Hebrews 6:1
"I'll turn over a new leaf." — Miguel de Cervantes
