London Police Battle 30,000 Demonstrators

LONDON -- A mob of demonstrators against the United States and the Vietnam war swept through the streets of London, waving Vietcong flags and chanting "Ho, Ho, Ho Chi Minh!" and "Down with American Imperialism."

A force of 1,700 police scuffled with the 30,000 demonstrators as they tried to storm the U.S. Embassy. At one point they tried to break through lines, but police yanked placard lances from their hands.

Police thought that a memorial to the late President John Kennedy which was seriously damaged several hours before the demonstration was part of the movement.

NEW YORK -- President Johnson accused Richard Nixon of making "ugly and unfair charges" about the nation's defenses.
Nixon had charged that the Democrats had created a "gravelly serious security gap" last week.

To statements that during the Eisenhower-Nixon administration a number of would-be trouble spots had not erupted, Johnson countered that "Nixon can make whatever promises he wants about the future, but I'm not going to let him rewrite the history in the past."

News Round Up

The President's comments weren't restricted to Nixon alone. He called third party candidate George Wallace "a fellow whose fame until now rested on his ability to stand in college doorways, and encourage people in his state to feel they were part of a separate nation."

SAIGON -- Enemy troops struck a base north of Saigon near the Cambodian border in their first attack in a month. They were beaten back with heavy losses.

The enemy forces have reportedly pulled a large number of troops back to Cambodia which may account in part for the recent lull.

In another series of allied-initiated charges throughout South Vietnam, more than 500 enemy troops were killed with allied forces only losing five and wounding 20.

NEW YORK -- Police have voted to heed a court order which would end their work stoppage, but firemen threatened to escalate into a full-scale strike unless the city met their wage demands.

There was no break in the teachers' strike and firemen have threatened to start calling in sick next Wednesday and have scheduled a full strike for Nov. 13.

Police explained their return to work by saying "We cannot in good conscience arrest someone tomorrow if it is said we are violating the law ourselves."

BONN -- Security officers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) are reportedly demanding that a stockpile of nuclear warheads in Europe be moved out of fear that West Adm. Herman Luedke may have betrayed secrets to a foreign power.

Luedke, formerly deputy head of the Alliance's logistics department, was found dead in a game reserve near Bonn and is reported by NATO security officers to have had detailed knowledge of the position of nuclear depots throughout the alliance.

Investigations into the Luedke affair are continuing.

PARIS -- Informed sources in France said that President Charles de Gaulle has changed his mind about urging Turkey to loosen ties with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization following the invasion of Czechoslovakia and the buildup of the Soviet fleet in the Mediterranean.

Turkey is regarded as an important NATO member since it guards the eastern flank of Russia as well as its access to the Mediterranean.

Turks had reportedly been eager to improve relations with the Soviets in return for economic advantages.

CHICAGO -- The Chicago Daily News and the Better Government Association have been conducting an investigation which shows that hundreds of ghost voters are listed on the Chicago election poll sheets.

Skid row derelicts were paid to register and hotel registers were used to sign up transients without their knowledge, the Daily News said.

The article also said that persons were registered from vacant lots and that a guest roster at a Skid Row mission house was used to register persons who no longer stayed there.

WASHINGTON -- The five-man National Labor Relations Board ruled 4-1 that a union may include officials of other unions on its negotiating campaign provided the group bargains only for employees covered by the contract.

The ruling involved 1966 negotiations in which officials of eight unions sat on the bargaining committee of the AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers, General Electric had objected to the officials of the other unions and continued contract talks only under a federal court order.

CLEVELAND -- Two men robbed a truck driver for the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. of pay phone coins weighing two tons and amounting to between $15,000 and $20,000 in nickels, dimes and quarters.

"They'll have some problems getting rid of that much small change, but then they'll have even more trouble lifting the load out of the truck," a policeman said.

LANSING -- Spray cans sold and used as defense weapons are illegal and even possession of one of the sprays is a felony, Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley said. He added that the violation theoretically could bring the possessor five years in prison and a $2,500 fine.

The law forbids a disabling or harmful gas, and Kelley said even "an inert gas with its load of pepper" falls in this classification.

Detroit police have said they will attempt to remove the sprays from bars and counters where they are for sale. A team of persons will search for places where they are sold then ask that they be removed. They will return in a week to see if the request has been complied with.

DETROIT -- Auto workers will receive an eight-cent-per-hour pay increase which went into effect Monday, but will not be collected until late in December.

The cost of living increase will result in a Christmas type bonus for 450,000 hourly-rated GM employees, Ford's 160,000 hourly workers and to Chrysler's 100,000 hourly employees.

MADRID -- In a ruling which applies to married couples as well as sweethearts, the mayor of Los Santos de Maimona has banned kissing in the street or any other public place.

If courting couples are caught holding hands, their names are inscribed on a blackboard in one of the town squares, and will remain there for eight days. A kiss on a girl's cheek invites a fine.
