DeLaSalle deals CC rare defeat in boys track

Detroit Catholic Central lost its first boys track dual meet in two years Monday, but coach Tony Magni still holds out hope the Shamrocks can win their 10th Catholic League championship in the last six years.
Warren DeLaSalle clinched the Central Division championship with a 71.5-56.5 win over the Shamrocks at Warren Cousin High School.
The Shamrocks will compete in the Class A regional starting at 2 p.m. Friday at Plymouth Canton before setting their sights on the Catholic League meet Tuesday at Farmington Hills Mercy.
" We still have a very good chance, we could win the league meet," Magni said. "But to win, everyone has to perform their best -- have their best time, jump, throw.
" No one can have a mediocre day. We've overcome a lot of adversity, and now we have to overcome some more."
" CC's hopes of having standout Joe Leo in the lineup are over. Leo has missed the entire season with a knee injury, which hasn't improved enough to chance running again in high school.
His next running will take place at Michigan State University.
Winning events against DeLaSalle were Dan Dominguez, shot put, 48.9.5; Chris Laney, 800-meter run, 2:03.3; and John Griffin, 3,200 run, 10:08.
Kevin Quay, Jason Marrase, Roy Sample and Hays Venning won the 800 relay (1:35.4) and Laney, Anthony Keishian, Dave Venning and John Faunce won the 1,600 relay in 3:38.0.
Quay also recorded a personal best time while placing second in the 400 run (51.4), and Griffin had a personal best time despite taking second in the 1,600 run (4:32.6).
" Some of the races were so close, I think maybe Tuesday we can reverse those and we'll come out ahead," Magni said.
The top two individuals in each event at the regional qualify for the state meet. Others will qualify with state-best times.
The Shamrocks' best chances, according to Magni, appear to be in the throwing events and the 1,600 relay of Laney, Venning, Quay and Brian Teley. Another individual who figures to have a strong chance at qualifying is Griffin in the 3,200 run.
The Shamrocks on Saturday placed third at the Oxford Invitational with 48 points.
Dominguez was second in the shot put (47.1) and Brian Douglas third (46.5). Quay took second in the long jump (19.2) and fifth in the 400 dash (51.3). Griffin was second in the 3,200 run (10:18) and third in the 1,600 (4:38.5).
CENTRAL 74, NORTH 63; North Farmington came up a little short Tuesday against Walled Lake Central in a Western Lakes Activities Association meet. North's Brian Reid captured the 1,600 (4:42.7) and the 800 (2:08).

Ryan Kusolic won the pole vault (6.0) and also led off the winning 800 relay team. Russell Snow, Matt Sellen and Mike Lester finished up in 1:37.1.
Duane Wilder took the 400 with a 53.3 clocking while Josh Callahan captured the 300 hurdles in 42.8.
Callahan led off and Wilder ran the second leg of North's 1,600 relay team, which won with a time of 3:41.6. Snow and Brian Reid also contributed.
GLENN 100, FARMINGTON 37; The host Falcons won two events Monday in the Lakes Division dual meet. Keith Sudsummer was first in the high jump (6-4) and Farmington won the 1,600 relay in 3:54.0.
