

House gives empty nesters space

The 2223-square-foot Halo is an ideal house for a young family needing more living space. The versatile Halo will also work well for empty nesters that like to entertain and have accommodations for any overnight guests. This three-bedroom, two-bath, with an attractive wood exterior, is definitely a home you can build with pride.

A wide front porch, which is a great place to sit and enjoy a summer evening, welcomes our visitors. The entry, with a handy closet, leads directly into a generous great room. Here you can regale friends and family while the built-in fireplace keeps everyone cozy. When the weather warms, take the fun out on the broad back deck. Plenty of room here to set up the barbecue for an old-fashioned cookout.

The isolated master suite is quite large. In addition to having a private bathroom, there are twin basins with an overhead skylight, a huge walk-in closet and personal access to the deck. Adjacent to the master suite is a home office big enough for conducting a business or setting up your PC for use in maintaining household accounts and playing computer games.

are on the opposite side of the Halo. They consist of two good-sized bedrooms with big windows and adequate closet space.

The walk-in kitchen features a bright breakfast nook, island cooktop, raised dishwasher, garden window, double ovens and a built-in desk. The spacious utility room is sure to please. It conveniently opens into the garage, assuring you of a spot to discard soiled clothing before entering the house. It features a sink, room for folding clothes, storage and a built-in ironing board. The 927-square-foot garage has room for storage.
