leaving coaching."

Hage, who replaced the retired Don Albertson as Churchill's A.D. in June, said he will post the girls varsity soccer position sometime this week. (He also said he will begin interviews for the boys varsity basketball job in the middle of the month).

"With Nick's increased commitment to the A.D. (and the athletic department at Oakland), he felt it was time to step down at Churchill even though it was something he enjoyed and did a very good job at," Hage said. "I'm going to miss him and he's done wonders for our program. He's been a source of inspiration for many players and his knowledge and level of play will be hard to duplicate."

O'Shea is a graduate of Livonia Franklin and played collegiately at both Schoolcraft Community College and OU (where he earned All-NCAA Region II honors in 1983). He played professionally for Oklahoma City and Kalamazoo of the old American Professional Soccer League.

O'Shea began his high school coaching career in 1986 as an assistant under Ed Dudek.

"I felt I could have won a few more games at Churchill," O'Shea said. "But I was involved most with developmental stuff, which a lot of high school coaches bypass in order to win."

"I tried to allow our girls to make decisions and make mistakes, and not fall into a pattern where they weren't learning."
