Family feature: Coach Orion (Jeffrey Nordling, center) celebrates a victory on ice with the popular Mighty Ducks in Walt Disney Pictures' "D3: The Mighty Ducks."

Win tickets to 'Mighty' preview

Grab the phone, and call (810) 594-9174, to receive tickets to a special preview screening of Walt Disney's new family film, "D3: The Mighty Ducks." The first 25 callers will receive a family-four pack of tickets to the preview screening 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 1 at the AMC Orchard Theatre at 12 Mile and Orchard Lake Road in Farmington Hills. Callers should follow the instructions on the answering machine — (leave your name and daytime phone number). The first 25 callers will be notified by phone, and will be able to pick up their tickets at the theater. Walt Disney Pictures' action/comedy "D3: The Mighty Ducks," the third installment of this perennial family favorite, opens Friday at metro Detroit movie theaters. This time, the coolest team on ice has a new school and a new coach. But it's the same old Ducks attitude that shines through as they face off against an apocalyptic varsity team of tough hockey players who are determined to melt their winning streak, and the steady school alumni who threaten to revoke the Duck's scholarships. After winning The Junior Goodwill Games in "D2: The Mighty Ducks," the young hockey champions accept athletic scholarships from exclusive Edna Hall Academy, whose Warriors team have held the state title for 20 years. When Ducks Coach Gordon Bombay (Emilio Estevez) does not immediately accompany them to Edna Hall, the team feels abandoned. "They are kids from the inner city and kids from public schools going to the lofty Edna Hall Academy where no one wants them," producer Jordan Kerner explains. "Our kids are confronted with both economic and sociological differences from the children around them and the sort of fear of being accepted is magnified by that social difference. Adjusting to the pressure of being at a new school, and reporting to a new coach, Orion (Jeffrey Nordling), are just the beginning of the Ducks' woes. They face their final test in the exciting showdown game against the bullies of the Warrior Varsity. The Ducks are no longer Ducks, but rather Edna Hall Junior Varsity Warriors, and one team member, Banks (Vincent A. LaRusso) is playing for the varsity, whom they despise. The team's identity seems to be spiraling towards self-destruction. Even the other students at Edna Hall Academy seem unwilling to accept the outsider Ducks, which only adds to their misery. Possibly the most difficult aspect of their acclimation is the person with whom they're spending much of their time: Coach Orion, a stern, defense-oriented coach who conducts grueling practice sessions. "D3: The Mighty Ducks," is directed by Robert Lieberman from a screenplay by Steven Brill and Jim Bernstein, story by Kenneth Johnson and Jim Bernstein, based on characters by Steven Brill. Jim Bernstein lives in Plymouth and graduated from the University of Michigan where he now teaches screenwriting.
