Hills franchise lawyer honored

The Oakland County Chamber of Commerce, a division of the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce, has recognized Farmington Hills attorney David L. Steinberg, host and producer of "Franchise Focus," for promoting the programs and events of the Oakland County Chamber of Commerce on the Continental Cablevision program. Steinberg is an expert in franchise law. "Franchise Focus" appears on Channel 11 each Sunday at 9:30 p.m. on Continental's 13 cable TV systems in the metro Detroit area. On receiving the award, Steinberg said, "I am honored the Chamber has recognized our program not only because franchisees offer outstanding opportunities for people who are interested in launching new careers, but additionally because people need to understand that, as in any business, franchisees also harbor pitfalls or potential problems. Our program is dedicated to identifying both opportunities and pitfalls for the benefit of our viewers. Steinberg is a 1977 graduate of the University of Michigan. He received his JD degree from the University of Detroit in 1980 and his LL.M. degree from Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., in 1982. Steinberg is of counsel to Hertz, Schram & Saratsky of Bloomfield Hills.

Hills takes part in 'Stand for Children'

The Farmington Hills Commission on Children, Youth and Families will join with concerned citizens from across Michigan for a nonpartisan day of commitment to the children of Michigan in Lansing on Saturday, Oct. 5. Michigan Stand for Children will take place on the grounds of the State Capitol and will be a nonpartisan day of education, entertainment, and family fun. The purpose is to mobilize citizens to support the health, safety, security and education of all children. The Michigan delegation will meet at the William Costick Activity Center, 28600 W. 11 Mile Road, at 10:30 a.m. and will form a caravan into Lansing for the activities which will take place between 1-4 p.m. Michigan Stand for Children is seeking sponsors for the stand. It is also encouraging people to contribute new shoes to be distributed to needy children throughout the state. For more information, contact Wendy Shepherd at 926-5720.
