FOOTBALL

Prognosticators disagree on Boys Bowl

We're entering the home stretch of the high school foot-ball senson with ball season with several area schools still ontertaining playoff possibilities.

BRAD the unbeaten, however, has shrunk to two teams at 4-0 neighborhood rivals Westland John Glenn and Wayne Memorial.

shrunk to two teams at 4-0 neighborhood rivals Westland John Glenn and Wayne Memorial.

Five other teams have only one defeat _ Redford Catholic Central, Farmington Hills Harrison, Livenia Franklin, Plymouth Salem and Lutheran High Westland _ all still retain post-season playoff aspirations.

One game also separates your friendly prognosticators.

Figures, Dan O'Mearn, is taking the week off after correctly raising his season total to 50-12. An impressive week none-the-less for the Iriebman, who nearly went 16-0 had not Detroit 5t. Martin DePorres rallied in the final seconds to beat Catholic Central in a battle for state bragging rights, 8-7.

Yours truly went 13-2, playing a hunch that Canton would beat Harrison, but to no avail as the Hawks wan 20-6.

No more hunches, please, but the good news is that the defending champion still maintains a slim lead with a 51-11 mark.

As for this week's alate, the big game is Sunday at Pontiac Wisner Stadium, between CC and unbeaten Birmingham Brother Rice.

Here is a sneak preview of the upcoming weekend action.

FRIDAY'S GAMES (all 7:30 p.m. unless noted)

Chelses at Redford Union (7 p.m.): This is a non-leaguer, RU (0-4) is search-ing for its first win, but the Panthers did ruin Dearborn's 13-game regular season shutout string in a 41-7 loss. Chelsea (2-2) is coming off a 20-12 win over Southeastern Conference for Spallenti Uncoin as quarterback Dustin White threw for 149 yards (17 for 30) and Jay Schick rushed for 110 yards (on 22 cerles). But the Buildogs did give up 205 yards on the ground to Lincoin's Jaquan Wright, PICKS: Chelsea Clinton all the way.

yerds on the Guinege and give or years on the ground to Lincoln's Jaquan Wright. PICKS: Choise a Clinton sil the way.

Lutheran Westland at Clarenceville:
Matro Conference brogging rights in Observerland eie of stoke in this one. If the Warliers (3.1, 3.1) wit, it will be their best stort in school history. Secondayeer coach Scott Wiener, should get a boost this week when senior tight and Joe Pruchink (eibow highy) returns to the lineup for the first time. Clarenceville (1.3, 1.3) is to 40 Harper's Woods last week, 28-13, but gere up 233 yards to Androw Ciccorolla. Can they stop the Warriors' Albert Cook.

PICKS: The Marriors' Albert Cook.

F.H. Harrison at I.H. Churchill: The Hawks (3.1, 1.1) are still very much law in the Western Liskes after stopping Plymouth Canton quorteback Rob Johnson In a 20-7 win. Churchill (0.4, 0.2) put 19 points on the board last week in a loss to Wildel Lisk Western Division rose in the Western Liskes sites stopping Plymouth Canton quorteback Rob Johnson In a 20-7 win. Churchill (0.4, 0.2) put 19 points on the board last week in a loss to Wildel Lisk Western, but in the Charge-rebacked Churchill to a shecking upset in 1984. PICKS: It's all Harrison.

Liv. Franklin et Ply. Canton: This game pits two of the WLAA's permier rebacked Churchill to a shecking upset in 1984. PICKS: It's all Harrison.

Liv. Franklin et Ply. Canton: This game pits two of the WLAA's permier the Kingli and given up only 13 points since losing to No. 1-canked Stefling leights Stevenson in the season opener. Canton (2.2, 1.1) must find some ciferens from other people than Johnson. PICKS: Both like the Patriots in this one.

one.

Iv. Stevenson at W.L. Central: A key battle in the Lakes Division of the WLAs. Central (3-1, 2-0), one of the state's largest teams, only bot winless Narth Farmington by a 16-0 count. Stevenson (2-2, 1-1) is coming off a 34-13 win over Farmington as senior Gada Clark had 228 yards in a school-record 38 carries. PRCRS: Central keeps pace for first place.

N. Farmington at Westland Glenn: The state-ranked Rockets (4-0, 3-0) took N. Farmington at Westland Glenn: The state-ranked Rockets (4-0, 3-0) took care of previously unbeaten Plymouth Solem last week, secring 31 unanswered points in a 33-14 victory, North (0-4, 0-2) has struggled in all four genes to generate any kind of offense and the odds of that happening this week appear to be remote. But the Raiders did play Glenn tough a year ago, jooking 14-0, PICKS: Glenn keeps it going with its fifth struight win. Trention at Questland Control of the Control o

2.1) is coming off a 21.0 win over Dea-born Heights Crestwood es quarterbock Tony Trejo hit 12 of 20 passes for 220 yards. His favorite torget is Ben Striz (five catches for 106 yards). Thurston, however, also owns a 30.19 win over Crestwood, PICKS; Give the home team, Malyladdia ble edge.

Crestwood. PICKS: Give the home team, Mekindale, I be edge. Wayne at Wyandottis: The Zeras (4-0, 30) cent afford to be looking ahead to upcoming gemes with Belleville and Dearborn Fordson, Wyandotte (22, 2-1), coming off a 24-8 loss to Fordson, is a quality opponent, lod by offensive tackle Jason Plak (6-3, 270) considered one of the top linemen in the state. Wayne, however, can match any team in the state when it comes to beef. PICKS: Wayne cludes the Bears.

SATURDAY'S GAMES

Ply. Salem at Farmington (1 p.m.): Salem (3-1, 1-1) came down to earth last week after gotting thumped by Gienn. Farmington, meanwhile, is trying to pick up the pieces from a 34-13 loss to Stevenson. It could boil down to who has the better offense, not defense.PICKS: Take the Rocks in a defense.PICKS: Take the Rocks in a tougher/than-expected game.

Bishop Borgess vs. Riverview Gabriel Richard (2 p.m., at Garden City Jr. High): Borgess opened Tri-Sectional pley last week with a 286 loss to Detroit East week with a 285 posts foce an unbest-on Richard (4-0, 1-0) team that edged Allon Park Cabrini, 17-14, as John Romane kicked the game-winning filed god. PICKS: king Richard lives to be 5-0.
Red. St. Agatha vs. R.O. Shihe (7:30

Red. St. Agatha vs. R.O. Shihe (7:30 p.m. at R.O. Kimbail): The winless Aggles (0-4, 0-1) are having tackling problems. Although down by only two, 14-12, at the half last week to Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard, Agatha fela paper in the second half. Former Aggle coach John Goodard's Knights (3-1, 1-0) opened C-Section play fast week by railying from a 14-11 hairtime deficit to beat Pontice Notre Dame Prep. 27-14. PICKS: There's no lake or pool nearby for Gooderd to do a victory dip, but how about a Gaterede drenching? Take Rediord CC vs. Birm. Brother Rice (2 p.m. at Pontiac's Wisner Stadium): It's the Boys Bowl meeting with much at ratike, CC [2-3], stung by lost week's B-7 loss to Detroit St. Martin DePorres, needs a win to stay in the pleyoff hunt in Class AA-Region III. The Shamrocks have won 10 of the 12 meetings (since 1986), including two victories over the warriors last year. Rice is led by All-State running back Birah Morshell, who recked ou 16-9 yeards in 3 cayries in a 6-0 win lost week over whiless Harper Woods Blahop Gallegher. PIGKS: CC continues to have the Warriors' number Emons says, but O'Mesra likes Rice.

STATE OR LOCAL TAXES AND, WHERE REQUIRED OR CHARGED STATE ENVIRONITMENT OR DISEOSAL

PLAYOFF POINTS

MHSAA FOOTBALL PLAYOFF COMPUTER PANKINGS

Class AA (Region II); 1. Battle Creek Cen-Class A4 (1490o II); 1, Battle Creek Cen-tral (4-0), 92,000; 2. Brighton (4-0), 80,000; 3. Monroe (3-1), 70,750; 4. Welled Lake Western (3-1), 68,750; 8. Plymouth Solem (3-1), 64,750; 0. Jackson (3-1), 62,750; Thi Carman-Ainsworth (3-1), 62,500; 8. Welled Lake Central (3-1), 62,250; 9, Ann Arbor Huron (3·1), 58.500; 10. Howell (2·2), 47.500.

Cissa AA (Region III): 1. Westland John Glenn (4-0), 98.000; 2. (tie) Clarkston (4-0) and Troy (9-0), 90.000 anch; 4. Wayne Memorial (4-0), 86.000; 8. Redford Catholio Central (3-1), 74.780; 8. Dearborn Fordson (3-1), 68.500; 7. Detroit Redford (3-1), 68.000; 8. (tile) Detroit Henry Ford (3-1) and Livenia Franklin (3-1), 64.780 each; 10. Detroit Murray-Wright (3-1), 62.750.

Class A (Region III): 1. Detroit Chadsey (4-0), 102.000; 2. Trenton (4-0), 92.000; 3. South Lyon (4-0), 90.000; 4. Dearborn (4-0), 84,000; 5. Novi (3-1), 68,750; 6. Farmington Hillia Harriaon (3-3), 64,500; 7. Saline (3-1), 64,250; 8. Deorborn Edsel Ford (3-1), 58,250; 9. Southgate Anderson (2-2), 47,500; 10. Wyandotte Roosevelt (2-2), 45.250.

Wyandste Rossevit (22), 45,250.
Class 0 (Report) 1, 1, 50,011 get Aquiess (4-0), 70,000; 2, Aimoni (4-0), 04,000; 3, 41,411 get Agents (4-0), 70,000; 2, Aimoni (4-0), 04,000; 3, 41,411 get Noscid (4-0), 50,000; 50,

Class D (Region IV): 1. Morrice (4-0). 44,000; 2. Detroll East Catholic (3-1), 38,750; 3. Center Line St. Clement (2-2), 38,750; 4. Peck (3-1), 30,750; 5. Adrian Madison (2-2), 21,417; 6. Wyandotte Mount Carmel (2-2), 10.250; 7. Hamtramck St. Florian (1-3), 13.250; 8. Marine City Cardinal Mooney (1-3), 9.250; 9. Waldron (1-3), 8.250; 10. Redford St. Agatha (0-4), 1.589.

SOCCER

North gamble pays off

North Farmington soccor coach Ron Metoyer is not one to shy away from a challonge even if it could come back and bite him in the face.

Motoyer had the courage of his convictions Monday and it paid off with a 2-1 victory over Walled Lake Central. Host North Farmington improved to 4-3-2.

ington improved to 4-3-2.

Dan Gabriel scored for North Farmington, giving the Raiders a 2-0 lead at 14:28 of the second half. He took a corner kick from Victor Juncaj and headed it in.

At that point, Walled Lake Central juggled its lineup.

The Vikings took over and wound up with a 12-9 shots advantage, nine of which came late in the second half.

late in the second half.
Goalie Jeff Ibbetson was handling the shots, most of which came from long range, but Meteyer's defenders were beginning to tire. North Farmings out a red card plus another injured.
So Meteyer gambled and pulled libetson, who also plays a solid defense, and replaced him with Tony Munaco.
"Sometimes that kind of a

with Tony Munaco.
"Sometimes that kind of a move will cost you," Meteyer said, but Ibbetson was our only fresh legs so I pulled him."
Central got a corner kick North Farmington was unable to clear and the Vikings did indeed scorn a goal that narrowed the

"But our defense jelled," Meteyer said. "Our kids got out of their sluggishness and were able to hold on for the win."

Meteore credited midfielders Benji Salter and Amit Klatchko plus defenders David Benver and Eugone Zolotarwzsky with really solidifying the midfield defense and keeping Walled Lake Central out of the net during the final 10 minutes of play.

"We're in the winning column," Meteore said. "And we're playing a lot of the giants. We've won two in a row. If we' can hang on and win a few more, we're in good shape."

good shape."

It was a physical encounter but one kept under control by the officials. Central did lose a player to a broken nose during the opening minutes of the match following a collision with a teammate. He was taken to a hospital with a severely broken nose.

nose.

North Farmington scored 19:33 into the game when sophomore Craig Hearn got the ball, aribbled past two players, forced the goalie to commit and blasted a shot past the goalie's right side. Juncal fed Justin Street, who fed Hearn for the goal.

*** **Transpar** ** **Transpar** **Tra

It stayed 1-0 into the second half with the Raiders applying most of the pressure until Gabriel scored.