BE AWARE OF YOUR FAULTS AND CORRECT THEM.

It is often quite difficult to take an honest look at ourselves and to see what faults we may have. However, it is so easy to look at others and find numerous things that they could do better than we. But we can't see the log in our own eye. Although it is very difficult to change our behavior patterns, self-improvement is important if we want to become a better person. We all have faults and probably always will; however, once we are aware of our various faults we should make an honest effort to correct them. It's certainly not easy to change old habits, but God wants us to be the best that we can be. All things are possible with God, even correcting our faults. Let's take the log out of our eye.

Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but pay no attention to the log in your own eye?
Good News Bible Luke 6:41

A man who has committed a mistake and doesn't correct it is committing another mistake. — Confucius
