

Common Cause leader to speak before OWL

The November meeting of OWL, Older Women's League, is scheduled Nov. 4 at 7 p.m. at the Farmington library, 23500 Liberty Street.

Karen Holcomb Merrill, Michigan executive director of Common Cause, will be the guest speaker. She will be talking about the influence of campaign contributions on elected officials and public policy.

Holcomb-Merrill has been executive director of Common Cause in Michigan for nine years. Common Cause in Michigan is the state organization of a national, non-partisan organization which works to improve openness and accountability in government at all levels.

Prior to coming to Common Cause in Michigan, she was a lobbyist for the Michigan Townships Association, which represents township officials from across the state. She is a graduate of Albion College with a degree in political science. She was a member of the Gerald R. Ford Institute for Public Service at Albion.

There is no charge. Refreshments will be served.

OWL is the only national, grassroots membership organization whose sole mission is to address the special needs and concerns of women as they age. OWL's programs and activities spring from one encompassing vision: mature women in control of their lives, managing their health, their problems and their needs with dignity, strength and independence. Call 474-3094 or 348-6012 for more information.
