There's another twist on the lineup of games. Instead of teams falling from the unbeaten ranks, as was the case a few weeks back, the number of winless teams will be reduced this week.

Either Redford Union or Garden City will be a first-time winner in their Mega-White Division game, and Livonia Churchill could earn its first victory against winless Northville.

The Observer prognosticators are deadlocked with three weeks by go. Both were 12-3 last week to go. Both were 12-3 last week and stand 73-17 overall.

Luth. East at Clarenceville: The Tro-jons (2-4, 2-4) nailed down their second win Saturday, 3-8 ever whites Luther-an Northwest, but they face tougher opposition this week in the Metro Con-ference. Lutheran East (3-2, 4-2) took a 56/28 pounding from a rejlwenated Ham-tranck squad but is still above, 500 for the season. PICK: The Engles soor with victory. Churchili at Northville: This looks like a golden opportunity for the Chargers (0-4, 0-6) to win _ something they haven't done since late in the 1993 sec-son. But Churchill fans have to be and the factor and the state a win last year, PICK: The Hawks win another close one.

N. Farmington at Stevenson: The Sportens (3-1, 4-2) are on a roll with three straight victories and have clinched a share of second place in the from a 21-7 deficit Friday before taking a 33-21 win over Selem. The Raiders (O-4, O-6) missed a chance to win Seturday

4. 0-9) missed a chance to win Saturday when penatites and turnovers proved costly in a 7-9 loss to Farmington. PICKI The Spartons stand their ground.

Redford Union at Garden Cityt Both teams up 0-4 in the Mega White (10-6 oversill) and Retiring to stey out of the division ceilar. The Panther's haven't scored a point in the last month, losing their last three by shutout, including a 3-40-score Fiddy against Southgate. The Cougars, who lost 27-13 to Toylor Kennedy, have done slightly bother at socing points. The Penthers wen 13-0 last year o'ek Garden City. PICKI it's Garden City's turn to win.
