Hills man charged in robbery

A Farmington Hills man, 27, has been charged with armed robbery after a shopper was held up at knife-point outside Farmer Jack at Crossroads Plaza Nov. 11.

The victim, a Detroit man, 56, told police he was approached by a man holding a knife as he unloaded groceries into the trunk of his car around 1:30 a.m. The man demanded money, but the victim managed to get away. The robber took beer from the trunk and fled in a 1980 blue Ford pick-up truck.

Farmington Hills police stopped a truck matching the description at a gas station on the corner of Eight Mile and Merriam. The man was arraigned by the 47th District Court magistrate Dennis Pheneay. A not guilty plea was entered.
