

GOP women to present talk by college president

The Birmingham Republican Women's Club will present Dr. George Roche, president of Hillsdale College, as its luncheon speaker Tuesday at The Community House, 380 S. Bates, Birmingham.

Roche has served as president of Hillsdale College since 1971. He is the author of 12 books including five Conservative Book Club selections. Roche has directed his efforts toward attracting and retaining first-rate faculty, constructing state-of-the-art classrooms, laboratory and performance facilities for every discipline, and endowing much of the college's academic program. Numerous national ratings now list Hillsdale among the nation's finest liberal arts colleges.

Roche's other accomplishments include the founding of the Center for Constructive Alternatives, which is the largest lecture series in American higher education, and the establishment of the Shavano Institute for National Leadership, an off-campus lecture series.

Luncheon reservations at $17 each are available to the public by calling (810) 646-2377 or (810) 559-2783.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Pistorio of Clinton Township announce the engagement of their daughter, Gina Marie, to Andrew Robb Aikens, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Robb Aikens of Bloomfield Hills.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of the University of Washington in Seattle.

Her fiancé is a graduate of the University of Michigan and is enrolled in U-M's graduate physical therapy program.

A February wedding is planned.

Mrs. Oakland County contest seeking entries

Applications are being accepted for the title of Mrs. Oakland County, preliminary title to the Mrs. Michigan International Pageant, to be presented April 20 at the Smith Theatre on the Farmington Hills Campus of Oakland Community College.

The Mrs. Michigan International Pageant strives to recognize today's married woman's role as wife, mother, professional and civic or charitable volunteer, as well as her other accomplishments.

The woman chosen as Mrs. Oakland County will receive an official title and sash. The woman selected as Mrs. Michigan International will be awarded an all-expense-paid trip to Texas to compete for the title of Mrs. International, numerous prizes and cash. Competitions for the title of Mrs. Michigan International include interview, aerobic-wear and evening gown. There are no talent or swimsuit competitions.

Married women living in Oakland County interested in applying may request more information by writing Michigan Pageants Inc., 2474 Pontiac Drive, Sylvan Lake 48320, calling (810) 682-7616, or faxing (810) 682-9221.
