

Ready, set: By having his camera loaded and ready, Monte Nagler was able to get this interesting candid of this man in Lathisi, Greece.

Nagler

When traveling, put your traveler's vision in gear and be ready for the unusual.

On a trip to Greece, in the charming town of Lathisi, I took a stroll down the street with my camera around my neck. It was loaded and I had predetermined the exposure in case I saw something picture-worthy. Sure enough, it happened. Glancing inside a doorway, I saw this delightful Greek man holding his cane. Being ready paid me off with this shot.

You may only have a few seconds before the rainbow vanishes, the cloud pattern changes or the facial expression is lost.

By taking a few simple steps to prepare your camera and yourself, you'll be able to preserve those magical moments on film and treasure them for a lifetime.

Monte Nagler is a fine art photographer based in Farmington Hills. You can leave him a message by dialing (313) 953-2047 on a touch-tone phone, then his mailbox number, 1873. His fax number is (810) 644-1314.

Museum sets holiday events

The Detroit Historical Museums will host a number of special events during the holiday season.

The Moross House, 1460 E. Jefferson, will be decorated for the holiday season noon to 4 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 14, and 12:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday. The Moross House is Detroit's oldest brick house and will be decorated by area garden clubs and feature ongoing holiday demonstrations. Admission is by donation.
