How To Learn to Love God
How do we learn or develop a love for God? Although there are many correct answers to this question, one important way is for us to recognize and be aware of the many ways that God loves us. We learn to love by the way that someone treats us. A loving parent, spouse, family member, or good friend is probably loved because of how kind and considerate they are toward us. Once we observe and recognize how many things our Heavenly Father does for us, we can begin to see how much He loves and cares for us. Each day God is reaching out to us with His love, and we must be aware of His presence in our lives. Once we recognize how much God loves us, God's great commandment that we should love Him with all our heart, and with all our soul, and with all our mind, will become truly real in our lives. We love God because He first loved us.
...You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it, you shall love your neighbor as yourself.
