Mystery solved

In the 1880s, Guardianware was manufactured and bought by loyal customers across the country who use their beloved pots and pans to this day. In 1955, Guardianware was sold to the Presto Co. which discontinued the line in 1957. In 1980, the Guardian Service Cookware Company came on the scene to reintroduce the cookware and sell replacement parts. Customers can get more information by calling 1-714-828-0750, or writing Guardian Service Cookware, 8300 Corridor Ave., Stanton, CA 90680.
