THINGS TO DO TODAY

Don't take everything too seriously. Develop a sense of humor. Smile often. Keep a happy attitude. Buy someone a cup of coffee or a soft drink. Help someone out and listen to their concerns. Compliment someone on how nice they look. Talk and listen to an older person. Make "please", "thank you", and "I'm sorry", a regular part of your vocabulary. During your next conversation, let the other person talk more than you. Before you talk, be sure that what you say is kind and true. When someone says something mean to you, remember that a soft word turns back anger. Be responsible for your actions. Don't wait for someone else to do something — you do it. Pray often, talk to God, and develop a personal relationship with Him. Before any decision or important event, ask God for His guidance and help. Be good to your family, because they know you better than others. Remember that we are also part of God's family. Love one another as God loves us.

Do for others what you want them to do for you...
