ton Hills and proceed west, ending at Grand River and Farmington Road in downtown Farmington.

Keeping with the theme, employees at Botsford General Hospital in Farmington Hills are creating a float that reflects the hospital's over 30 years in the community. Botsford General Hospital is also celebrating its 12th year as the proud sponsor of the parade.

"The Founders Festival and its parade are wonderful community and family events, in which we at Botsford see ourselves as a vital part and participant of," said Margo Gorchow, administrator, hospital & community relations at Botsford General Hospital.

Mary Bush, the Chamber of Commerce's "Citizen of the Year," will serve as grand marshal of
