the breaststroke (1:16.27) and Grider the 100 freestyle (57.8). Jacobs also was third in the 200 freestyle (2:10.99) and Burke the butterfly (1:05.91).

Lauren Turner, Tara Grider and Jennifer Bendick had real good swim meets, which is not to slight anybody, because we had a good team meet," Duthie said, adding Jacobs also "had real nice swims."

Mustangs down Cranes

Team depth helped Birmingham Marian overcome Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook-Kingwood in a dual meet Sept. 11.

The Cranes won nine of 11 swimming events, including a pair of relays, but the Mustangs compiled enough second- and third-place points to earn a 97-73 victory.

Marian senior Lauren Najarian won the 50 freestyle (26.74) and helped the Mustangs win the 200 freestyle relay along with Kim Beals, Brady Kosnik and Hali Sund, who also was second in the 50 freestyle (27.63).

"We had a lot of good performances and hung in the entire meet," Marian coach Dave Maker said.

"I thought at the end Brady Kosnik's second-place in the breaststroke showed tenacity and put the meet out of reach of Cranbrook."

"We also got leadership from Lauren Najarian, who has been an asset to the program for four years. In addition, we have freshmen like Kim Beals and Hali Sund scoring valuable points for the team."

Cranbrook had a strong showing from Elizabeth Groth, who won the 100 freestyle (56.39) and the backstroke (1:02.66). She also was on the winning medley and 400 freestyle relay teams.

Before season starts, check rules

League bowlers would have received the new 1997-98 copy of the American Bowling Congress and Women's International Bowling Congress playing rules.

This 70-page booklet is revised and reissued before league bowling begins.

Most of the sanctioned leagues follow along with the exact rules and regulations. The individual leagues have the option to change various rules to conform with the characteristics of their own leagues.

It is recommended that all officers and team captains look over the rules as the new season is underway.

There have been a few minor rule changes, in which case the rule book is accented by (bracketed) which indicate these revisions.

Until a few years ago the ABC and WIBC had used separate rule books, now they are unified, and that has made more showing as we are dealing with the same game regardless of gender.

Knowing the rules can go a long way toward avoiding disputes and delays. Particular attention should be paid to certain rules such as: (4a) legal delivery, (5a) definition of a foul, (6a) foul pinfall, (8) dead ball, (9) bowling on wrong lane, (10) provisional ball, (11) forfeit delay of game, (13) parental consent, (16a) using assumed name, (17a) unfair tactics, (19) bowling ball altering surface, (102c-e) duties of the officers, (105a) legal lineup, (106d) playing and (106e) bowling out.

These are just a few examples of the rules which everyone should be familiar with. This is part of the structure which makes this game of bowling so popular and enduring.

The Budweiser-Michigan Majors Bowling Association has announced that three members will be inducted into its Hall of Fame.

Rick Eiermann of Garden City and Ken Wyatt were voted in by the 12-man committee, while Ted Bakatolos was selected in the Veterans category. Eiermann has competed in 110 tournaments in his 13-year career winning five titles.

He has five 300 games in MMA competition and holds the all-time record for a 12-game finals with a 2,063 score (255 average). Rick made the finals 11 times and cashed in 47 tournaments with a lifetime average of 209 for 850 games.

Wyatt, of Warren, was the bowler of the Year in 1989.

He set the record for the most times in the finals in one year with eight in that year and sports a lifetime average of 214 for 1,254 games.

Bakatolos bowled during the 1960s and 1970s with 22 appearances in the finals. He cashed in 32 tournaments with a lifetime average of 206.

Wyatt, Eiermann and Bakatolos will be honored Nov. 22 at the championship banquet scheduled at the Hawthorne Valley Country Club.

The Blue Ribbon Bowling Group has announced its winners of the Schwin Mountain Bikes. The grand prize winners in the men's pin group included Jason Rafalski (Westland Bowl), Matt Antroubish (Woodland Lanes), Mike VonBraunsberg (Town 'n Country), Kory Herschack (Mayflower Lanes), Eric Wolnie (Beach Lanes) and Kelly Hagedorn (Cherry Hill Lanes).

The top adult prize was a 54-inch Magnavox TV, which was won in a random drawing by David Holliday.

Have you ever heard of the Metro Bowling Tour?

You will quickly become familiar with this new venture from the creativity of Roy Akers.

Roy has a weekly radio program, the North Oakland County Bowling report, and now will have his activities on local cable TV with this new venture. It is basically a monthly tournament for above-average bowlers. The basis will be to hold a reasonably priced entry with good cash prizes.

This is made possible through the sponsors, including Lakewood Lanes (Oct. 25), Cherry Hill North (Nov. 23), Mora Bowl (Dec. 27), Classic Lanes (Feb. 1), 300 Bowl (March 1), Century Bowl (March 28), Fiero Lanes (April 28), Airway Lanes (May 23) and Bowl One (June 7). And $1,000 will be added by the Mortgage King Roy Akers.

The dates indicate the TV tournaments at these locations. The entry fee is only $35, which covers the bowling fee and prize fund. For more information or entry forms call (248) 673-7407.

"That's what we need to do, but we need to be a minute faster to be a force Saturday and in the regional," Servais said. "If everybody takes another minute off, we'll start to get there. We have another month and a week."

"I thought we were a lot better than we did Saturday, and we need to carry today's effort into Saturday's race and see what happens. Since the (invitation) is at Cass Benton, too, we're hoping we can carry this over."

The Marlins were 10th out of 25 teams Saturday at the (New Boston) Huron Invitational. Sogus finished 31st (21:36) and received a trophy. Burniski was 41st (22:06), Thomas 61st (22:60), Danielle Wroblewski 63rd (22:52) and Andriola 77th (23:26).

Farmington boys 9th
The Falcons had a better showing at the Holly Invitational this year, finishing ninth among 23 boys teams in Division IV for small Class A schools Saturday.

Farmington's Ryan Scheidies was 25th (18:33), Chris Nigrant 60th (19:28), Andrew Kensonson 62nd (19:30), Mike Eldridge 69th (19:36) and Aaron Scheidies 84th (19:45).

"We made a big improvement over last year," coach Chip Bridges said, adding the Falcons moved up at least 10 places in the team standings.

"The kids are starting to see the improvement, and the work they did over the summer is paying off."

"We have too big a gap from our No. 1 guy to the second. We have to work on getting the next four guys up closer to Ryan, and then we'll start to see more improvement."
