Salem outduels Harrison, 43-38

BY NEAL ZIPPER
STAFF WRITER

As early season games go, Thursday's showdown featuring Plymouth Salem and Farmington Hills Harrison had post-season excitement.

The two teams, who are among the favorites to win the Western Lakes Activities Association, fought to the end before the visiting Rocks escaped with a 43-38 victory.

Junior center Christine Phillips scored eight of Salem's final 10 points to help hold off the Hawks.

"This is a very good Harrison team and beating them puts us a leg up on the rest of the league," Salem coach Fred Thumann said. "We still have our hands full with teams like Canton, Northville and Walled Lake Central."

Salem improved to 4-1 overall and 2-0 in the WLA, while Harrison slipped to 6-3 overall and 2-1 in the league. After winning their first four games, the Hawks have dropped three of their last five contests.

The game featured Harrison's speed and pressure defense against Salem's superior height. The Rocks proved why basketball is a tall person's game.

Salem dominated the boards, holding a 37-13 rebounding advantage (9-2 on the offensive boards). The Rocks held the Harrison barrage of three-pointers to only one per possession.

Phillips led all scorers with 16 points (12 in the second half) and 11 rebounds. Junior forward Andrew Pruett added 12 points and 13 rebounds, while senior guard Amanda Abraham chipped in with seven points, five assists and 11 boards.

Amy Roble paced Harrison with 10 points. Senior guard Kristine Knutson added nine points and junior guard Ari Ault recorded eight points.

A Phillips putback gave Salem a 36-31 lead with 5:30 remaining, but Ault countered with a three-pointer. Phillips extended the lead to three with a banker with three minutes remaining. After a Roble layup made it a one-point game, Phillips hit another layup.

The Hawks closed the margin to 39-38 when Mahogany Fletcher stole a pass and converted a layup with 1:09 left. A short jumper by Pruett increased the lead back to three with 38 seconds remaining.

The Hawks missed two chances to tie the game on desperation triples. Phillips closed the scoring with a layup at the buzzer.

Raiders turn up the heat on Patriots in 2nd half

BASKETBALL

North Farmington pulled away from host Livonia Franklin in the second half Thursday to post a 62-36 win in girls basketball.

The Raiders led 27-22 at halftime and outscored the Patriots 25-14 in the second half. North led 41-22 after three quarters.

Freshman Samantha McComb scored 14 points to lead a quartet of Raiders in double figures. Kellee Fournier was next with 11 points; Melissa Gratz and Katie Vitellie added 10 apiece. Franklin's Tara Morrill scored a game-high 16 points in a losing cause. Julie Warner added nine.

North improved to 2-1 in the Western Lakes Activities Association and evened its overall record at 4-4. Franklin is 0-3 and 3-6.

BORGESS 51, MERCY 31: Redford Bishop Borgess limited the host Marlin's first half points Thursday en route to the Catholic League Central

"This was probably the best game we've played all year," Harrison coach Pete Mantyla said. "It's still early in the league season, and we have a long way to go."

"I'm not at all disappointed with the way we played offensively. We caught and passed the ball very well. We were just one shot away from winning or tying this game."

Harrison came out on fire making its first three treys to take a 12-6 lead. The Hawks then missed their next eight triple tries as Salem took a 22-20 halftime lead.

"We wanted to slow it down somewhat and play good perimeter defense," Pruett said. "We've been working hard on our three-one zone, and I think we broke them down early with that."

"Another goal we had was not to give up the second shot, and we did a good job on the boards defensively."

Harrison made 14 of 48 shots from the floor and was 7-of-26 behind the three-point arc.

Both teams enjoyed leads in the third quarter before two free throws by Roble tied the game at 31-31 after three quarters.

"I've seen Harrison play three times and I know that they are going to shoot 30 or more three-pointers," Thumann said. "No matter what defense you play, you're not going to stop them from shooting threes. We just wanted to make sure we didn't allow them to try two three-pointers."

"I thought we got good open looks from all our perimeter players," Mantyla said. "Against Salem, you have to make your shots to win."

"And we're going to have to rebound better. What we give up on the boards we hope to make up with the havoc we create."

The Hawks did force Salem into an uncharacteristic 25 turnovers with their swarming defense.

"Our young players had to face that tough double team for 32 minutes, and I think they did a very good job," Thumann said. "I also thought our wing players (Abraham, Pruett and Grubaugh) did a great job on the defensive boards, and Phillips did an outstanding job clogging up the middle."

Roble was held in check by Salem — and by the referees who called four traveling calls on her.

Harrison assistant coach Tom Negoshian was still puzzled after the game about the questionable traveling calls against Roble. The senior guard has made the same jump step in the previous eight games but hadn't been called for a violation once, according to Negoshian.

Division victory.

The Spartans scored to a 16-4 lead in the first quarter and boosted their advantage to 30-8 at halftime. Borgess led 36-21 with one quarter remaining.

Karen Merchant scored 19 points and Christine Anderson 13 to lead the Spartans, 2-0 in the division and 8-0 overall. Borgess is ranked No. 1 in Class C.

"They have three girls who are going Division 1," Mercy coach Dave Collins said. "That about says it all. They have big-time talent."

Junior Jossie Brennan was Mercy's leading scorer with 11 points. Senior Ashley Schumacher and sophomore Naverre Naam added five apiece.

"We scored eight points in the first half, and we came back and scored 23 in the second," Mercy coach Dave Collins said.

"Any time you're down like that to a team like that and come back in the second half, that spells h-e-a-r-t. I'm really proud of the way our kids played, and I think we're improving all the time."

"One of our goals is to get to the Catholic League playoffs, and I think we can do that. We'll keep striving for that."

On Tuesday, the Marlin's lost by a point at Dearborn Divine Child, 56-55. Mercy was down by 14 with three minutes to play. Brennan had 15 points.

CANTON 76, FARMINGTON 16: Kristin Meyer scored a career-high 16 points and pulled down nine rebounds Thursday to lead the host Chiefs, who are 5-3 overall and 2-0 in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

Nkechi Okwumabua netted 15 points, Kristin Lukasik 14 and Melissa Marzoff 13. Beth Jager accounted for half of Farmington's total.

Canton led 28-0 after one quarter and 37-4 at halftime.

The Falcons are 0-8 overall and 0-2 in the WLA.
