half, but we made too many errors and you can't do that in a big game. Western finally found paydirt on the opening drive of the second half when senior quarterback Frank Stanford capped a 73-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run...

Senior quarterback Jared Hopkins drove the final nail in Western's coffin when he capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run. Hopkins hit Ghanman on a screen pass for a two-point conversion for the final margin of victory.

Stanford is fun to watch, but not from the other sideline. The Hawks contained both Johnson and Stanford, who combined to rush for 101 yards on 26 carries. Stanford was sacked twice for minus 24 yards.

from scrimmage after taking the kickoff. Kocokolosi got on the ball at the Raiders' 17. North's defense stiffened, however. Salem ran twice and moved the ball to the visitor's 9. North stopped the Rocks for no gain on third down, and Bernhardt missed on a fourth-down pass into the end zone.

Charlie Schmidt came within an arm's length of returning North's kickoff for a touchdown. As it was, the Rocks started what turned out to be the game-winning drive at their own 4. On first down, Burleson found a hole and ran 44 yards to the North 12. Six plays later, Peterson ran it in and put Salem on top for good at 11:22 of the fourth quarter.

North Farmington got two more chances to tie the game again but failed. The Raiders' deepest penetration was to Salem's 33. Facing fourth down and 12 with 3:04 remaining, Reilly was tackled for a loss by Salem's Teomo Wilson. The Rocks ran out the clock to preserve the victory.

Fran Herrington, the coach's wife and the Hawks' No. 1 fan. "He was the one who told me to calm down," Fran said. "When he got home from school, Coach John took a nap and slept well apparently. Fran had to wake him up to go back.
