PRESIDENT TAFT
ASKED TO OPEN FAIRDETROIT MEN SEND WIRE TO WHITE HOUSE OUTLINING PROGRAM.

MAY SPEAK ON RECIPROCITY

NATION'S EXECUTIVE HAS BEEN ASKED
TO ATTEND THE OPENING OF THE
MICHIGAN FAIR IN DETROIT
SEPTEMBER 18.

Lansing—President Taft has been asked to open the Michigan state fair in Detroit the morning of September 18, the first day of his visit to the state. Mayor Thompson, Milton McRae, president of the board of commerce; Secretary Staley of the Bank of America; and the Michigan State Fair Commission were in conference at the Detroit club arranging a program for the president's visit. At the conclusion Mr. McRae sent a wire to the White House outlining the following schedule:

The presidential special will arrive in Detroit at 6:55 a.m., and will be met at the Michigan Central station by the commissioners from the board of commerce.

It is probable that there will be a dining car on the special for Mr. Taft and his party, but if there is not one will be attached here and at 7:00 the trip to Pontiac will begin. The local committee will accompany the president on this trip, arriving in Pontiac at 8:30. A stay of an hour and a half will be made there.

On the return to Detroit, if the president is willing to visit the state fair, the special will stop there about 10:45. Thirty minutes have been allowed for an address at the fair grounds, and the trip to the city will be finished about 12 o'clock.

At 12:30 the board of commerce luncheon will be held either at the Light Guard armory or at the Wayne County Club, with about 1,500 members of the board of commerce at the affairs, and Gov. Chase S. Osborn, Senators Smith and Townsend and several of Michigan's congressmen are expected to be present. In case the president intends to speak on reciprocity a number of prominent Canadian citizens from Windsor and vicinity will also be invited to attend. The luncheon and addresses will last until nearly 4:25, at which time the presidential party will leave for Bay City.

Faster Increase Shown in Cities.

Michigan urban population increased nearly eighteen times as rapidly as the rural population during the preceding 1910, according to federal census statistics just made public. The percentage of the state's inhabitants classified as urban was 47.2 in 1910, compared with 39.3 in 1900. There were 35 counties in which the population living in rural territory decreased.

The population of the state classified as urban in 1910 is estimated in 70 cities and nine villages. The rural population of the state consists of 367 cities and villages of less than 5,000 inhabitants and the unincorporated territory.

Over one-half of the state's increase was in cities of 100,000 inhabitants or more. The gain in each of these cities was 9.6 per cent in 1890, 11.8 per cent in 1900 and 20.6 per cent in 1910.

Detroit and Grand Rapids increased in population 10.2 per cent in 1900, while the population of the state as a whole increased 10.6 per cent in 1900, and 12.5 per cent in 1910.

CALDWELL HEADS STATE GOLFERS.

In the sixth annual tournament of the Michigan State Golf league, which began at Grand Rapids, J. T. Wyile of the Saginaw Country club won the gold medal in the low qualifying championship flight with a score of 72. The record is the amateur record of the local links.

At the annual business session of the league the following officers were elected:

President, A. B. Caldwell of Detroit; vice-president, John Duffy of Grand Rapids; secretary and treasurer, C. D. Bennett of Detroit. The next annual meeting will be held in Detroit on the Detroit Golf club's grounds.

During the year two clubs have been added to the league, Kalamazoo and the New Haven Golf club. The latter is a new club and is composed of Detroit golfers.

One of the features advanced at the annual session was the proposition to have public golf grounds in all municipalities, the same as the playground movement. The idea was launched by President Caldwell of Detroit and will probably take firm root throughout the state, as the league members are heartily in accord with it.
