Falcons bring down Rockets

Farmington High topped one of the perennial heavyweights in Western Lakes Activities Association wrestling Tuesday when it defeated visiting Westland John Glenn in dual meet, 50-25.

The Falcons earned points in eight of the last 10 weight classes to win going away at home. Jerry Lema (135), Martin Spinks (140), Dean Gosowsky (160) and Ben Lukas (171) pinned their opponents. Tony Lema (130) won a decision while Sevan Sahiner (145), Andrew Wood (169) and Sean Tranchida (275) won by void.

Farmington is 1-1 in the Lakes Division of the Western Lakes Activities Association and 7-4-1 overall.

"Everybody wrestled real tough today," Farmington coach Al Boyar said. "The seniors came through as we expected."

"Dean Gosowsky had a real good win over Matt Biddinger. That was probably the surprise of the night. I think it's the first time Dean has beaten Biddinger. He's one of Glenn's better wrestlers, and Dean did a nice job and wrestled him real tough."

"Martin Spinks had a key match and came out of there with a quick pin. After Jerry's match, we were up by one point, so that kinda got us going."

The Falcons won two of five matches Saturday in a dual meet tournament at Auburn Hills Avondale.

Farmington defeated Utica (51-29) and Clarencville (45-33) but lost to Avondale (48-21), Ypsilanti Lincoln (45-38) and Mount Clemens (69-12).

Jerry Lema and Sahiner were undefeated, winning all five of their bouts and taking the first-place medal in their respective weight classes.

Dustin Gross, Tony Lema, Mike Parry and Ben Lukas were 3-2 and finished in third place.
