Be Good Stewards Of Your Resources
It seems that nearly every day, we are getting requests either in the mail or by telephone, for donations to some organization. Most are worthwhile and depend upon our support for their existence; however, identifying and soliciting through the mail have become so widespread that it is virtually impossible for anyone to support all of the requests they receive. God wants us to be good stewards of our resources, and we should be selective of what we support with our funds. Impulsive donating is sometimes like impulse buying: later on we may regret our actions. Before donating to any unfamiliar organization, we should not only take time to investigate who we are contributing to, but also take time to pray and ask our Lord for His guidance. In the Bible, the importance of supporting the poor and needy is mentioned many times. Jesus said, "What you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me."
The King will reply, "I tell you, whenever you did this for one of the least important of these brothers of mine, you did it for me!"
Good News Bible - Matthew 23:40
