Mighty Hawks win Mite tourney crown

The Mighty Hawks of the Farmington Hills Hockey Association's Mite Division won the Allen Park Holiday Tournament for a second time with a 5-0 record. The Mighty Hawks started the tournament with a hard-fought, 3-2 victory over Allen Park No. 1. The Hawks jumped to a quick, two-goal lead on a pair of goals by assistant captain Keith Button. The Allen Park team tied the score, but a late goal by Emery Jacques on a feed from Shaun Walters gave the Hawks the victory. The second game ended in a 5-1 victory over Lincoln Park. The scoring attack was led by Walters with two goals. John Feiten, David Learner and Button also contributed goals to the Hawk cause. Cody Hamway and assistant captain Richard Dougherty assisted on goals. The third game resulted in another big victory (6-0) for the Hawks over Allen Park No. 3 as goaltender Thomas Whiting earned a shutout. Six players figured in the scoring with R.J. Mehall, Learner, Button, Tim Lehto, Walters and Mark Whitehead scoring goals. Earning assists were Russ Iwanac, assistant captain Courtney Van Antwerp and Feiten. The Mighty Hawks moved into the semifinals against River Rouge and rallied to win the game in overtime, 3-2. Button tied the score at 1-1 with an unassisted goal, but River Rouge regained the lead late in the second period. Farmington Hills pressured River Rouge throughout the third period without success. The Mighty Hawks eventually pulled their goalie for an extra attacker, and captain Tim Lehto's goal with seven seconds remaining sent the game into overtime. In the second sudden-death overtime period, Learner found Van Antwerp open in front of the River Rouge goal, and Van Antwerp sent the Mighty Hawks into the final by putting the puck in the corner of the net. The championship game was a rematch of the tournament opener against Allen Park No. 1, and the Mighty Hawks prevailed once more with a 2-0 victory. Feiten, the tournament's most valuable player, scored the first goal with assists from Van Antwerp and Andrew Lanz. The score remained 1-0 until late in the third period when Lehto scored an insurance goal. The Mighty Hawks are coached by John Van Antwerp with help from assistant coaches Tom Lehto and Rich Button. The Mighty Hawks, who earlier this season won the Farmington Hills Thanksgiving Tournament, have an overall record of 22-2-3.

HOCKEY

Detroit Catholic Central and Trenton have played some memorable hockey games over the years. Add another to the series and this time CC can savor the outcome a little more after a 3-2 victory over Trenton before a sold-out crowd Saturday night at Redford Ice Arena. The win marked the end of an impressive week for the defending Class A state champion Shamrocks. On Wednesday, they beat Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook, the No. 1-ranked team in Class B-C-D, 2-1. CC began the week with a 4-2 loss Tuesday to the Compwure Midget AAA team at Compwure Ice Arena. Losing to a team of that caliber is no shame. "It was a great hockey game, and that's the way it ought to be played," said CC coach Gordie St. John. "Trenton is a very good team, certainly one of the strongest teams we've played." The Shamrocks are 6-1-2 overall, 5-0-2 in the Michigan Metro Hockey Association. Trenton is 8-2 overall. CC led 1-0 after one period and 2-1 through two. Trenton tied the score at 2-2 only 42 seconds into the third period when Brian Hancock scored a power-play goal, assisted by Kurt Garza and Derek Nykiel. The Shamrocks scored the game-winner at 6:27 of the third period when Eric Hawkins banged in a shot from the slot. Chris Morelli started the rush and passed the puck to Keith Rowo, who found Hawkins in front of Trenton netminder K.C. Begeman. "It was a nice pass, right out to him," St. John said. "Hawkins just beat him in front of the net and beat the goaltender. It was a beautiful play, a picture play." Sophomore Ben Dunne, making his second straight start in net for the Shamrocks, withstood a late rally by the Trojans, who pulled Begeman for an extra attacker. "Trenton rang some off our goal post, and we had a couple opportunities on the end," St. John said. Dunne sat out last semester after transferring. He stopped 24 shots. CC had 31 shots. "He's going to be very good," St. John said. "He's an honor student and this kid has had two hot games." "On any given night, there are a lot of goalies that can be the best in the state. What you got to look at is consistency at the end of the season. You just don't know yet." The Shamrocks took a 2-0 lead before the game was halfway old. Tony Keshishian scored the first goal with assists to David Moss and Hawkins at 13:44 of the first period. The lead grew to 2-0 when Ian Davlin scored on the power play, assisted by Rowe and Moss at 4:27 of the second period. Trenton got on the scoreboard when Nate Schmoekel scored at 9:19 of the second period, assisted by Alec Lesco and Pat Maloney. Whalers silence Spitfires Three first-period goals propelled the Plymouth Whalers Sunday along the road they now find themselves — heading toward closure. Those three early goals, two by Julian Smith, were enough to carry the Whalers to a 4-2 victory over the visiting Windsor Spitfires. Combined with Saturday's 6-0 shutout of Sudbury, the Whalers improved to 24-14-3 in the Ontario Hockey League's West Division, good for 51 points and third place. That placing could change in a hurry. One thing the Whalers trail the rest of the league in is London, which leads the West with 67 points, has also played three more games than Plymouth. Second-place Sarnia (62 points) has played four more games. In Sunday's win over Windsor, Plymouth scored three times in a five-minute span of the first. Kevin Holdridge sandwiched a goal between the two by Smith, his second a short-handed marker. Andrew Taylor capped the Whaler scoring with a goal early in the final period. Robert Esche made 27 stops in goal for Plymouth. Windsor fell to the bottom of the West with a 16-29-1 record. The Whalers didn't start quite as quickly Saturday against Sudbury at Compwure Arena. Paul Mann's power-play goal late in the first period allowed them to leave the ice leading 1-0. Yuri Babenko made it 2-0 early in the second period; Babenko also had two assists in the game. Smith and Nick Teolis also scored in the second period, increasing the Whaler lead to 4-0. Eric Gooldy netted a goal in the third period to end the scoring. David Logwand picked up a pair of assists for Detroit.
