

Mules rule SC Invite

Temperance Bedford did little to displace No. 1 ranking in girls volleyball Saturday. The Kicking Mules ran their record to 61-3 by upending defending Scholastic College Invitational champion Landonia Ladywood, 15-3, 15-11.

It was Bedford's fourth Scholastic crown in five years and second victory this season over Ladywood.

The 32-team field featured six of the state's top-10 ranked teams in Class A.

Bedford senior setter Melissa Lyskowski, who is headed to Youngstown State, was voted MVP.

Two other Bedford players also made the all-tournament squad: 6-foot-2 junior middle blocker Shayna Munson, who who had five kills and three solo blocks in the win over Ladywood; and outside hitter Theresa Estes.

Senior Sarah Schneider, who is headed to LSU, led Bedford in the championship final against Ladywood with four kills, four blocks and one ace.

After being demolished in the opening game, Ladywood played nip-and-tuck with Bedford in the second game.

The Blazers (34-6-1 overall) were tied at 11-11 when coach Jodi Mancero called a timeout. The Kicking Mules responded with a four-point run to close out the match.

Ladywood players named to the all-tournament team were 6-1 junior Jenny Young, 6-1 senior Sarah Poyt, who finished with 98 kills and 73 assists on the day; and senior Jenny Lachapelle, who added 68 total assists.

Frontenacs edge Whalers in overtime, 5-4

The Plymouth Whalers came back twice from two-goal deficits Sunday, but their comeback hopes eventually fell short.

Kingston's Chris Allen scored 1:27 into overtime to lift the visiting Frontenacs to a 5-4 victory over the Whalers.

After 51 games, both teams have 61 points in the Ontario Hockey League.

Plymouth had trailed 2-0 and 4-2, but were able to force the game into an extra session. Allen, who is the leads all of the league's defencemen in scoring, took the only shot in overtime and it was able to elude goaltender Robert Esche.

The Whalers (28-18-5) fell behind 2-0 after goals by Kingston's Matt Bradley and Matt Elich. David Legwand got the Whalers on the board midway through the first period with a power play goal — his 45th goal of the season. Paul Mara and Andrew Taylor drew the assists.

Plymouth tied the game late in the period when Jesse Boulerice scored (assisted by Randy Fitzgerald and Pat Parthenian). But Kingston (29-19-3) took a 4-2 lead after goals by Colin Chauk and Jan Sulc.

Yuri Babenko got the Whalers back in the game at 9:30 of the third period with an unassisted goal. And with five minutes left, Harold Druken found the net. The game-tying goal was assisted by Taylor and Esche.

Esche saw 23 shots on net. Kingston goalie Curtis Cruickshank stopped 28 of the 32 shots he faced.

PLYMOUTH 3, OWEN SOUND 3: The Whalers settled for the tie Saturday, thanks to Paul Mara's second goal of the game with 1:38 remaining in the game.

The visiting Whalers recorded 45 shots on goal, but only managed three past Owen Sound goaltender Cole McInemey. Owen Sound had 33 shots on net. Trailing 3-0, Mara got Plymouth going with a goal set up by Legwand. With just over a minute remaining in the opening period, Boulerice notched his 15th goal of the season on a power play opportunity. Mara and Nikos Tsellos drew assists.

The Pirates tied the game in the second period and took a 3-2 lead early in the third period. Mara tied the game with his 15th goal of the year, which was assisted by Druken and Taylor.

Both teams had three shots on goal in overtime, but failed to score.

PLYMOUTH 5, QUELPH 0: The Whalers began their tough, three-game weekend Friday with an easy blanking at Guelph.

Guelph leads the Central Division with 71 points, but is currently on a four-game losing streak.

Esche recorded his second shutout of the season, stopping all 23 shots by the Storm. Chris Madden, the league's winningest goalie with 26 wins, suffered the loss.

Druken supplied much of the offense for the Whalers with two goals and an assist. Legwand, Julian Smith and Brian Passmore also scored for Plymouth, while Taylor added a pair of assists.
