Setting the table

China registry: Heslop's reports that casual china is moving into the dining room with the dawn of today's free and easy lifestyles. Like this pattern "Fleur" from Wedgewood, place settings can be formalized by adding the matching serving pieces and a crystal goblet or two. Brides-to-be are also mixing and matching patterns for personalized presentations.

Sears sells Gilda items

Sears, a national sponsor of Gilda's Club, will test sales of special logoed merchandise for the non-profit, cancer support organization named in honor of comedian Gilda Radner. The merchandise will be available through Sunday, March 22 in the Twelve Oaks store in Novi. The signature Gilda's Club red door and signage will alert shoppers to the shop in an area adjacent to the Men's department. The merchandise will include: T-shirts, sweatshirts, tote bags, baseball caps, mugs, mouse pads, and Sears' exclusive Gilda's Club neckwear collection, designed by celebrity friends and members of Gilda's Club. Ten percent of the sales will be donated to the local club.
