Oakland Mall hosts unique baseball event

In anticipation of opening day, a baseball museum packed with interactive displays will be open at Oakland Mall from April 1-May 2, sponsored by WDFN radio and The Detroit Tigers.

The museum within the mall will honor professional baseball, the Negro League, Women in Baseball, Olympic baseball, and a special tribute to the 1968 World Championship Detroit Tigers, including a special appearance by veteran players.

A scenic display of a miniature stadium, located at Center Court, will feature an electric scoreboard.

Shoppers will have the opportunity to review the evolution of the game through authentic equipment displays, such as the growth and change of the catcher's mask; full-size photographs of America's original professional baseball stadiums; and baseball artwork by Michigan's very own legendary artist: Bill Williams.

"We're thrilled to bring the museum to a major shopping center like Oakland Mall where shoppers can be entertained, educated and enlightened about America's favorite pastime: baseball," said David H. Martin, director of exhibit design and curator of the college baseball Hall of Fame and Museum. "Our goal (through this exhibition) is to rejuvenate the zeal for baseball among parents and kids, coaches, Little League players and baseball lovers from years past."

Television screens located throughout the mall will enable shoppers to relive exciting moments in baseball history. Batting cages will be available for those who would like to practice their swings, and actors will present dramatic performances of baseball greats, such as Jackie Robinson and Babe Ruth, during live stage shows.

Key to the exhibition will be field trips by metro Detroit elementary and middle schools to Oakland Mall. Students will take baseball greats, such as Jackie Robinson and Babe Ruth, during live stage shows.
