You're Rich If You're Healthy

While talking with a friend about a mutual acquaintance who was quite ill, my friend remarked that "a person is rich if they are in good health." This never means too much to us in our younger years, especially if we are in good health. However, as we get older, time may take its toll on us and soon we may begin experiencing little aches and pains that were not there just a few short years ago. There are many people in the world who would probably trade whatever riches they have, if only they were healthy and pain-free. It is so easy to take the many blessings that we have for granted, and it seems that we never quite appreciate something until we lose it. God honors those who are faithful to Him, and being appreciative of His love and realizing how good He is to us is a blessing.

My dear friend, I pray that everything may go well with you and that you may be in good health, as I know you are well in spirit.
