

Lansing shows local student works

Four Farmington Public Schools students who excelled in a recent statewide elementary school art exhibit had their art on display in Lansing.

Three of the students are from Gill Elementary and one is from Highmeadow Common Campus.

Among pieces of art that were on display in the Michigan Capitol Rotunda were creations from Gill fourth-grader Brittany Webster and Highmeadow fifth-grader Ryan Modreski. The art was shown there until Friday.

Brittany and Ryan were the only Oakland County students whose art was in the rotunda.

In addition, Gill fourth-graders Danielle Lailli and Robert Forte had their art on display in the Michigan Historical Society.

Gill art teacher Stephanie Kessler described Brittany's creation as "adrinka," African art design where symbols are stamped onto cloth. She said Danielle's was also paint-on-cloth African design while Robert's was an abstract painting, using sponges and brushes to dab colors onto paper.

Highmeadow's Ryan used his computer to replace the faces of two American presidents who are on Mount Rushmore with those of the pitchfork-holding farmer and his wife in the famous "American Gothic" painting by Grant Wood.

2 nabbed with cocaine in hotel

Farmington Hills police arrested a Commerce Township woman, 27, and a Brighton man, 39, after finding 9 grams of cocaine in a room at the Comfort Inn on 12 Mile Friday.

At 9:26 p.m., police went to the hotel after a woman called the front desk screaming that she needed help. Fearing the woman was being harmed, a hotel employee forced the door open.

Police and paramedics arrived shortly after to find a woman wearing only a T-shirt and a man sitting nude on the toilet.

The man appeared dazed at first but then started screaming. Police noticed cocaine residue on the floor near the man's feet.

He was treated for a possible drug overdose and taken to Detsford Hospital.

In the hotel room, police found a straw with cocaine residue and cocaine on a table. A sifter and another straw with cocaine particles were also found. The 9 grams was found in a dresser drawer.

Police also confiscated a video camera and $860 in cash.
