Oakland Mall hosts a baseball event

A baseball museum packed with interactive displays is open at Oakland Mall through May 2, sponsored by WDFN radio and The Detroit Tigers.

The museum within the mall will honor professional baseball, the Negro League, Women in Baseball, Olympic baseball, and a special tribute to the 1968 World Champion Detroit Tigers, including a special appearance by veteran players.

A scenic display of a miniature stadium, located at Center Court, will feature an electric scoreboard.

Shoppers will have the opportunity to review the evolution of the game through authentic equipment displays, such as the growth and change of the catcher's mask; full-size photograph of America's original professional baseball stadium; and baseball artwork by Michigan's very own legendary artist: Bill Williams.

Television screens located throughout the mall will enable shoppers to relive exciting moments in baseball history.
