Harrison had nine hits, including two each by Vitanis and Vosler. Kim Spaulding, Ari Autt, Emmett, Robie and Welling had one RBI apiece.
Emmett made her varsity pitching debut and worked all four innings of the rain-shortened game. She allowed just two hits and one walk, and she struck aut two struck out two.

Ari Ault, the catcher, was a part of two double plays. She threw out a player stealing on a strikeout, and the game ended with a home-to-first double play
after Pinckney loaded the bases.

Ali Ault and Vosler made the all-tournament team.

Raiders topple Chiefs, 3-2 North Farmington dealt West-ern Division-leading Plymouth Canton a 3-2 defeat Tuesday in a

WLAA crossover game.

The visiting Raiders (11-5) scored all their runs in the fourth inning. Doubles by Lynn Livernois and Knite Devereux produced the first run. Semantan McComb's single and an ensuing error allowed Devereux to score, and Lauren Ouellette singled home McComb.

singled home McComb.
North pitcher Mickey Spisz limited Canton to single runs in the second and fourth innings despite four errors by the Raiders, who outhit the Chiefs,
7-5.
Spisz struck out four and walked two. Jenny Fisher pitched six innings and took the loss.

loss.
Livernois and Doveroux had two hits, including a double, and scored one run each.
"It was just a great fast-pitch game," North coach Dave Brubaker said. "Both teams capi-talized on the other team's mis-takes, and we happened to come out on top." Elsner and Fisher had two hits apleco for Canton, which scored both runs as a result of North both runs as a result of Northerrors.

The Raiders improved to 4-2 in the WLAA Lakes Division with a 4-1 victory Monday over host Livonia Stevenson.

Spisz, who scattered six hits over seven innings for the win and Ouclette went 2-6r-3. Spisz also had two RBI, and Chrissy King added a hit and an RBI.

Spisz struck out three and walked one. LeAnno Schraufnagle was the losing pitcher, giving up nine North hits. The Spartans (2-5, 4-7) made three errors.

Brubaker vs. Brubaker

Brubaker vs. Brubaker
In tournament action Saturday in Waterford, Brubaker's Raiders were opposed by his daughter, Jessica, a freshman pitcher for host Kettering.
The younger Brubaker allowed 12 hits but spread them over seven innings as the Captains defeated her father's team, 6-3,
and improved her record to 6-0.
"I told her after the game she was grounded," cache Brubaker said. "The North players) have taken a lot of batting practice from her; so she wan't as effective as she would have been against a team that didn't know her.
"My girls played a good game
considering what Kettering has
— a whole team of travel
ballplayers."

North led 2-0 going into the bottom of the fifth inning. Dev-creux was 3-for-3 with two RBI. King, Quellette and Diana Gustkey added two hits each. Spisz gave up just four hits while walking six and striking out two. The Raiders made two errors.

out two. The Raiders made two errors.

North began the tournament with a 10-4 defeat of Lakeville. Livernois, Ouellette and fournier led a 10-hit attack with two each.

Ouellette also knocked in two runs; Kellee Fournier, King and Gustkey had one RBI each. Livernois, Ouellette and King scored two runs apieco.

The Raiders rebounded from the Kettering loss to beat Milford in their last game, 6-2, Spiez scattered seven hits, struck out seven and walked none.

McComb led the Raiders with a pair of triples, two runs scored and one RBI. Spisz and Devereux also had two hits each. Ouellette, hitting over .400, and Devereux had one RBI each.

Salem tops Farmington

Salem tops Farmington Farmington High suffered-its fourth straight WLAA Lakes Division loss Monday when visit ing Plymouth Salem scored a 4-2
win. Both are 3-4 in the division.
The contest featured a pair of complete games by sophomore pitchers, neither of whom allowed an earned run. The Fale cons had four hits off Salem's Amanda Sutton, the Rocks three off Farmington's Meissan Mytty.
Salem scored twice in the third and fourth innings, Farmington once in the second and seventh.

WEEK AHEAD

BASEBALL Friday, May 8 ton at Farmington, 4 p.m. son at Liv. Churchill, 4 p.m.

wrison at the Churchill, 4 p.n.
Saturday, May 9
ington at W. Bloom, tourname
SOFTIALL
Friday, May 8
on at N. Familiation, 4 p.m.
chill at Fami. Harrison, 4 p.p.
gina at Fami. Mercy, 4 p.m.
Saturday, May 9
ton, North Familiation, Hat I Familiation tournament,
Cantal Soccer
Friday, May 8

GIRLS SOCCER
Friday, May 9
at Farm, Harrison, 5,30 p.m.
Saturday, May 9
ercy at H.W. Regina, 1:30 p.m.
BOYS TRACK
Saturday, May 9
on, N. Farmington at Troy Ather
arm. Harrison of Lahser Relays.
GIRLS TRACK
Edday, May 9

GIRLE TRACK
Friday, May 8
Herrison at Leaning Waverly Invite.
Saturday, May 9
mington at Troy Athens Invite.
Mercy to host Mercy Invitational.
BOYS TENNIS

gton at Northville, 4 p.m. Friday, May 8 In at W.L. Western, 4 p.m. ral at Farm. Harrison, 4 p.m. QIRLS QCLF

SOCCER

Farmington claims 7-1 win over WLW

Junior Emilie Villemente and Angela Pelevinenico accounted for half of Farmington's total points Monday in a 7-1 defeat of host Walled Lake Western in host Walled Lake Western in girls soccer. Villemonte scored three goals; DeDomenico had one goal and three assists to lead the Faicons, who are 5-4-1 in the Western Lakes Activities Association and Lakes Activities Association and 8-4-1 overall.

Marina Vazquez, Lorianne DeDomenico and Brynn Maki scored one goal each. Jamie Jakacki had two assists, Laura Leffingwell and Beth Kolacki

Leffingwell and Beth Rolacki.
Dana Wantin made eight saves in goal for the Falcons.
"It was a very nice defensive effort," Farmington coach Bob Neff said. "The fullbacks and midfields were vers involved with the defense. The forwards and midfields were very active, too, as you can see (from the scoring)."

BISMOP FOLEY 4, MERCY O: The Mor-tins limited perennial powerhouse Bish-up Fuley to one first-laif goul, but the Ventures got a break with a penalty kick for their second goal.

We had the momentum and we thought we had a chance to get back in the game, and the referce gove foley a penalty kick, "Mercy coach Deepolk Shivmann said, adding Foley Socred Its last two gods in the final 12 minutes.

"Overal! I was pleased with the way we played. The score was not indicative of the level of intensity the Morcy girls played with.

"Our forwards had some clear chances; unfortunately, we didn't capi-calize on that, I we had scored carly, I might have been a different game.

"It was one of those games you feel

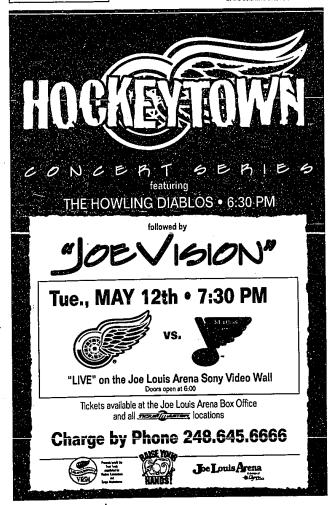

"it was one of those games you fee

"It was one of those games you leel preity good about, because the gifts gave it all they could on the field."

The Marlins, 5-3 in the Catholic League and 53 oversil, played a defensive game but tried to counter attack quickly, Shivman added.

Many Gignec, Elin Cain, Marie Lentz and Katte Welss had good performances at the defensive end, he said.

the rest as to able at all delegals. Takes The Total Co.