POLICE AND FIRE CALLS

The following are police and fire incidents that occurred in Farmington and Farmington Hills during the past week.

ATTEMPTED THEFT

In Farmington Hills:
Someone tried to steal a 1996
Kawasaki motorcycle from a car-port at Diamond Forest Apart-ments the night of May 14-15. causing damages totaling $500 to both sides of the bike.

causing damages totaling $500 to both sides of the bike.

HIST

In Farmington Hills:

A thief and possibly a duffer stole a set of women's and men's golf clubs and three speakers from the trunk of a 1994 Saturn parked at Green Hills Apartments the night of May 14-13. Someone also broken into a 1986 BMW parked at the apartment complex, stealing a car phone and damaging an in-dash radio. Someone stole a purse with a cellular phone and a camera inside from a truck parked at Target on Grand River May 16. A woman left a $3,600 diamond ring on a bench, and it was gone when she returned at the YMCA on Farmington May 13. Someone pedaled off with a $550 mountain bike from a garage on Peppermill Street the night of May 16-17. Someone stole $300 cash from a drawer at Household Life on Hamilton Gourt between May 16-18.

Thieves stole four USA Today

16-18.
Thieves stole four USA Today vending boxes worth $2,500 from Buddy's Pizza on Northwestern, Mobil Gas on 12 Mile, Kroger on Middlebelt and Big Boy on Orchard Lake between May 15-

17. The person who reported the thefts believe it's related to the nowspaper lockout.

A shutterbug thief stole two camera and two lenses worth more than $1,000 from a 1990 Acura parked on Glen Court May 16.

May 18.

In Farmington:
Someone stole a Mongoose BMX bicycle from a garage at Chatham Hills Apartments, in the 36000 block of Grand River.
The bike was taken between 8:15-8:45 a.m. Saturday. The bike was described as chrome, with yellow stickers.

with yellow stickers.

RIDECENT EXPOSURE

In Farmington:
About 7:50 a.m. Monday. a naked olderly man opened the curtains of his front picture window and exposed his body to children standing at a school bus stop across the street. The case is being investigated by Farmington detectives.
According to police reports, the man did not make any eye contact or obseene gestures to the children. The incident was reported by two boys, ages 8 and 11.

BREAK-MS

In Farmington Hills:
Someone stole a CD player and a cellular phone after breaking the passenger window on a 1994 Chrysler LHS May 15, causing $100 damage.

the passenger wanned out a ryse Chrysler LHS Mey 15, causing $100 damage.

A thief punched the lock on a 1998 GMC Jimmy; parked at Sam's Club on Heggerty Mey 16, stealing the storeo, $485 cash, cologne and 80 compact discs. Another GMC Jimmy, this one a

POLICE AND

1996 model, was breken into at san's Club May 15. The truck burglar took a cellular phone, stero and CD player.

Someone broke a window and made off with a briefcase, golf clubs and $2,500 worth of meniclothing from the trunk of a 1998 Honda Accord parked at Casual Male on Orchard Lake May 16.
In Formington:
Two vehicles parked in the 31000 block of Lamar Street were broken into and had itemstolen from them, between Friday night and Saturday morning, Between 11:30 p.m. and 10 a.m., the front passenger-side window was smashed. A 1996 cellular telephone, valued at shout $300, was stolen. Damage to the vehicle was estimated at $100. Also targeted, between 10 p.m. and 6:30 a.m., was a vehicle parked down the street. The driver-side window samshed, with an Ameritech pager, worth about $75, reported missing.

510.EN CAR
In Farmination Hills:

STOLEN CAR

STOLEN CAR
In Farmington Hills:
Police arrested a 17-year-old
Detroit boy after the 1997:
Camare he crashed on Forestbrook had been reported stolen May 16. A fomale passenger was taken to Botsford Hospital to be treated. The driver told police various stories about who the car belonged to, but later admitted he lied about his identity.

PORIMINEN BORUMA

he lied about his identity.

PRUMEN DRIVING
In Farmington Hills:
Police arrested a Farmington Hills woman, 38, for drunken driving on Salisbury and Inkstor at 9:30 a.m. May 15. Someone called police after a woman in a white van was trying to talk to school children at a bus stop.

When questioned by police, the driver of the 1994 Cheny van said she told one of the kids not to drop his books. The woman failed a sobriety test and had a blood alcohol level of 0.24 percent, which is more than twice the legal limit.

Police arrested a Farmington Hills man, 36, for drunken driving after he tested for a blood alcohol level of 0.21 percent after being stopped at Rensselaer and Shiawassee at 3 a.m. May 16.

In Farmington:
A 25-year-old Novi man was arrested for drunken driving about 4 a.m. Sunday. Police observed someone driving erratically on westbound Grand River near Shiawassee and stopped to vehicle at Brittany Hill. The man registered 0.11 and 0.10 on two breath tests.

At approximately 1:40 a.m. Stunday. Giffeers spotted a vehicle and wellman registered 0.11 and 0.10 on two breath tests.

At approximately 1:40 a.m. Saturday, officers spotted a vehicle with two women speeding on the M-5 service drive near the Radisson Hotel and Knighte Inn. The driver then turned onto eastbound M-5 at Halsted, going 70 miles-por-hour in a 65 mph zone and swerving from lane to lane. Police followed the vehicle, which subsequently pulled into a gas station at Farmington. Nine Mile roads. The 27-year-old Carmington woman driving had difficulty with field sobriety tests and registered a blood alcohol level of 0.17. She was arrested for drunken driving MARJUJANA POSSESSION for drunken drving.

MARIUMAN POSSESSION

In Farmington Hills:
Police arrested a Livenia man, 31, after finding 8.3 grams of marijuana in a duffel bag inside a 1993 Jeop Wrangler on 14 Mile and Orchard Lake May 16. Police stopped the Jeep for an improper license plate. When the officer asked the driver if there were any contraband inside, he replied, "Veah, in the duffel bag." Police took two Detroit men, ages 27 and 32, after finding 16.5 grams in soven individually wrapped packages inside a 1987 Chrysler on Grand River and Haggerty May 16. Police stopped the car for an improper plate and found the driver had soveral outstanding traffic warrants. Police confiscated more than $500 in forfeiture money.

forfeiture money.

DOMESTIC ASSAULT
In Farmington Hills:
A 14-year-old girl and her friend told police her stepfather hit her over the head with a pleatic bag filled with nuts and bolts May 15. The argument started after the girl refused to do the dishes. The girl had a small bruise and swelling on the back of her head.

BURGLARY

sman bruss and sweams of the back of her head.

BURGLARY
In Farmington Hills:
A burglar kicked in a rear door and helped himself to a Craftsman blower, Marlin 30-30 rife, iewelry box and three chain saws at a Jacksonsville Street home the night of May 15-16, causing $200 damage.
A Plumbrook Drive resident was startled to find an unknown woman crouched behind a kitchen cabinet around 11 a.m. May 18. The woman said she was looking for her dog "Lucky." The resident told the woman to leave and later noticed jewelry missing. The woman is described as in her 40s and wearing a white pants and top.

SHOPLIFING

.W. Huntington

planned a great deal for the future.

SHOPLIFTING

In Farmington Hills:
Two thieves had a thirst for a bit of the bubbly and stole 12 bottles of champagne worth $300 from Merchant of Vino on Middlebelt May 16. An anonymous caller tipped off a store employee that two men in a brown Lincoin would come in and conceal lincoin would come in and conceal the champagne in a green vest, The omployee saw two men matching the description by the caller, but they were walking out of the store and the champagne was gone.

store and the champagno was gone.

A store clerk phoned police after seeing a man who had unusual bulges in his clothing at Priscillae on Eight Mile May 16. An officer noticed a string hanging out of his clothing and found it was a woman's undergarment. Officers went on to find eight womon's coracts and two bras. The man said he was stealing hom for his wife. The man, who police arrested, had a pair of needle-nose pliers that he used to cut the security tags.

SEKUAL ASSAULT

SEXUAL ASSAULT

SEXUAL ASSAULT

In Farmington Hills:
A 31-year-old woman who is a resident at a group home told year of the second woman in car drove up along Tuck Road and asked her for a hug but grabbed her breasts instead May 18. The man is described as having a beard and Army tattoced on his left shoulder. He was wearing a blue baseball cap and black shorts and drove a white-colored vehicle with a black top.

VARDALISE

VANDALISM

VANDALISM
In Farmington Hills:
Vandals broke rear windows in four Saturns and dented the roof panel of another car with a Sam's Club shopping cart at Saturn of Farmington Hills on Hoggerty between May 16-18, causing $3,000 damage.

MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION PUBLIC MEETING NOTICE FOR M-10 FROM 12 MILE ROAD TO ORCHARD LAKE ROAD IN OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN

The Michigan Department of Transportation is holding an Open house public meeting on Thursday, June 11, 1998, from 3-30 to 5.00 p.m., and from 7:00 to 8:30 meeting at the Harrison High school Cafeteria, 29995 W. 12 Mile road in Farmington Hills. This is on accessible facility with accessibility parking close to the entrance.

Hills This is an accessible facility with accessibility parking close to the entrance. The purpose of this Open House meeting is twofold, First, to provide are set eithen the opportunity to view the preliminary plans for the major rehabilitation for the propertunity to view the preliminary of Northwestern Ref Pravillation for the properture of the properture of the properture of the properture of the property of the procedures for purchasing the land or obtaining the grading permits meeded for this project. The interviews with property owners are the first step of the process the includes the apprenia of and purchase of the land needed for this project.

Because no formal presentation will be given, please feel free to stop in any time between 3.30 to 6.00 µm, and from 7.00 to 8.30 pm, on Thursday, June 11, 1982. To further saist you, information on this project may be obtained by calling Susan Fredericks of the Metro Region Real Easte team at (810) 977-0678 or the MDOT Public Hearings Officer, Jose A. Lopes at (817) 973-9394.

Built Better, Priced Better.

Model 2135 Lawn Tractor

- 13 HP Kohler Command OHV Engine
   Shalt-Driven Hydrostatic Transmission with Cruise Control
   Welded, Euil-Langth, 11-Gauge, Twin-Channel Steel Frans
   Standard 38 High-Vaccum, Quick Attach, Deck with Mulch Baffle

$2,599

Model 2165 Lawn Tractor

- 16 HP Briggs 6 Stratton Vanguard V-Twin OHV Englie
   Shoft-Driven Hydrostatic Transmission with Cruise Control
   Welded, Full-Length, 11-Gauge, Twin-Channel Steol Frame
   Standard 48° Culptu Annel
   Stan
- $3,749

Model 3185 Garden Tractor

- 18 HP Briggs & Stratton Vanguard V-Twin OHV Engine
   Shaft Driven Hydrostatic Transmission with Cruise Control
   E-Vac™ System Cub Cade*a Exclusive Vacuum Actuated PTO Standard 409
- Standard 48* Quick Attach Cutting Deck

$5,799

(248) 373-0734

OXFORD Kon-Fri Bam-530pm 1830 N. Lapeer Road St. Sam-4pm (248) 628-1521

$5.000 minimum opening deposit

CD must be opened with funds from a non-Huntington account.

A deal this great doesn't come along every day. Current Huntington checking account customers are automatically eligible. So are new checking account customers. In fact, your CD balance of $5,000 or more can help qualify you for no monthly maintenance fee on certain Huntington checking accounts. Just stop by your local Banking Office or call 1-800-642-INFO today. But hurry. This deal won't be around forever.

THE HUNTINGTON FOUNDER'S CD SALE. MAY 11-22.

Take control of your money."