HOT FUN IN THE SUMMERTIME

Pine Knob Music Theatre will be shaking things up again when the summer music season begins Friday, May 22 with Eddie Money and local pop singer Stewart Francke welcoming patrons to the shed.

"We love Pine Knob. It's very nice that they let us back every year," said Money, talking about 60 m.p.h. "I like playing Detroit. We get to go to Tiger games. I love baseball. Last year I was there when the Red Wings were in the playoffs. That was great." The Independence Township summer shed may be starting on a familiar note but many acts on this season's Detroit-area schedules are making their debuts.

Country singer Shania Twain's Pine Knob show Tuesday, July 21, sold out within minutes of going on sale. At 10 a.m. Friday the screams of little girls will be heard at Area Ticketmaster
