What God Has Joined Together...

The marriage ceremony, during which a man and woman become husband and wife, can be a very emotional experience, and many of the guests and family members may often be seen crying tears of joy. When the bride and groom are reciting their vows, those present are usually calling to mind their own wedding day, or they may just be thinking about all of the blessings and joys in store for the newly married couple.

Regardless of the reason for tears at a wedding, the words "for better or for worse, for richer or for poorer, in sickness and in health," have a special meaning for everyone, and they are a promise that should not be taken lightly. Marriage was instituted by God, and God is love, and love in a marriage is necessary for a lasting relationship. A husband and wife who love and respect each other, and keep God in their marriage, should have a union that no one can separate.

... a man leaves his father and his mother and cleaves to his wife, and they become one flesh.
R.S.V. Bible Genesis 2:24
