Make Your Bed In The Morning

Making your bed as soon as you get up is a good way to start the day. This simple task can be the beginning of a well-organized day, and it means that once the bed is made, the whole bedroom seems to be more in order. Although we may be pressed for time to put things in order, if we leave our home neat in the morning, it seems that returning is always more enjoyable. God wants us to develop good habits, and taking pride in our appearance and belongings reflects our attitude and personality.

Making your bed in the morning may not be as important as some other good habits such as eating healthy, doing regular exercise, or praying on a daily basis; however, being neat and tidy is a good quality to possess.

In the Bible, St. Peter apparently thought it was important for us to make our bed when we get up, since he told the paralyzed man to rise and make his bed after he was healed.

And Peter said to him, "Arise, Jesus Christ heals you: rise and make your bed."

Revised Standard Version Acts 9:24
