

CC gains final with 2-1 win

This is Keith Rowe's third year on the Detroit Catholic Central hockey team, and he's trying his best to make this season a near carbon copy of the first.

Following the lead of its captain, CC marched one step closer to its second Class A state championship in three years with a thrilling 2-1 victory Friday over Marquette in a semifinal game at the Flint IMA.

Rowe is one of only three current Shamrocks who played on CC's 1997 state championship team. He also knows the disappointment of post-season defeat: last year's team took an early exit, losing to eventual state runner-up Grosse Pointe South.

Rowe earned an assist and showed his will to win in the final minute when he dived on the ice inside his blue line, sending the puck out of the CC zone with 11.8 seconds left after Marquette pulled its goaltender for an extra attacker.

"We played hard in different ways today," said Rowe, who also had a shot hit the post in the second period. "Marquette is quick and physical, very smart. They were ponding on us too. We hit a lot and they weren't intimidated. We're real focused this year. The difference between this year and last is 180 degrees."

The win sent the Shamrocks,

28-1-1 overall, into Saturday's championship game to play East Kentwood, a 6-1 winner over Birmingham Brother Rice in Friday's other semifinal. Details of the final game will appear in Thursday's Observer.

"Keith came to play," CC coach Gordie St. John said. "He's fortunate to have been on the team two years ago and then last year. He liked winning better and he spreads that in the locker room."

The loss was the first in 17 starts for Marquette freshman goaltender Andy Taylor and dropped the Redmen to 22-6-1 overall. Marquette fell behind 2-0 before the game was 12 minutes old but cut the deficit to one with Adam Fure's breakaway goal, assisted by Dan Stevenson, at 6:39 of the second period.

CC scored two goals in its first 11 shots against Taylor but managed only nine more shots the rest of the game.

Marquette, outshot 20-14, had the game's last scoring opportunity after pulling Taylor for an extra attacker.

A CC player tried to flip the puck out of his zone, but it was blocked by Fure, who had only CC goalie Ben Dunne between himself and the net.

Dunne, who stopped Fure earlier in the game on a breakaway, stopped the shot from point blank-range and the rebound attempt, preserving a 2-1 lead with 45.6 seconds left.

"I saw the five hole open and shot it," Fure said. "I thought it was in but I just didn't get it right."

The Shamrocks' were the aggressors early but Taylor stopped several of their scoring chances, including a kick save on Todd Bentley's breakaway in the first minute.

CC opened the scoring with David Moss' goal, assisted by Bentley, at 10:17. Less than two minutes later, Brad Holland beat Taylor between the legs with assists going to Rowe and Brandon Kalesnicki for a 2-0 lead.

"Good thing we got the jump (an early 2-0 lead), or we would have been in a lot of trouble," St. John said. "Their goalie was outstanding in the first period. He has a quick foot. And Dunne came through for us."

It was the end of a grueling week for the Redmen, who hadn't been home since Tuesday. They made overnight trips to Alpena and twice to Traverse City en route to the Final Four. "We've put on a lot of miles," said Marquette coach Mike L'Huillier, whose 1995 team won a Class A title. "But there's no excuses. We've been doing it for years. CC is a great team and Moss and Bentley are sensational. We've played AAA teams and they're comparable to any."

Fury wins age-group title

Soccer champs: The under-12 Farmington Fury boys soccer team won its age bracket at the North American Indoor Soccer qualifier earlier this year in Maumee, Ohio. The Fury was undefeated in the tournament with victories over Club Dynamo (Troy), 6-3; Toledo Pacesetters, 3-1; and the Cleveland Football Club, 2-1. By winning in Maumee, the Fury qualified to play in the North American Indoor Soccer Championship. The team members are (front row, left to right) Brent Peterson, Gabe Hernandez, Alex Gargot, David Ujick, Andy Gargot, (second row) Zack Stern, Ryan People, Calvin Bushor, Tom Mrozovich, (third row) Mike Rhoad, Alex Bonacic, Jeff Schield, Steve Beak, (fourth row, not pictured is Kyle Hearn). The Fury is coached by Rance People and Brandon Bujica.

Rocks end jinx by winning regional tournament championship

Plymouth Salem had a coming out party for its volleyball team Friday. The Rocks defeated Livonia Franklin (16-7, 15-7) to win the Ann Arbor Huron regional tournament championship.

Salem will play at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday against the winner of the Dearborn regional at the University of Michigan's Cliff Keen Arena.

"This is the first time Salem has come out of the regional," Rocks coach Tom Teeters said. "In the past, they always had to get by Livonia Ladywood. This was a good win for us. It was good to break that jinx."

Salem got the regional finals with a hard-fought 15-12, 15-13 victory over Saline (29-8-2) while Franklin trounced Wayne Memorial (18-22-3), 15-1, 15-4.

It was a coming out party of sorts for the Patriots, too.

"This was our first district title," Franklin coach Mark Helen Diegel said. "and our first win in the regionals. We represented ourselves well. If you walk off the floor knowing that and knowing it was a tough match it's okay."

"We've taken our program in the right direction. We've built on our previous teams' successes. We hope to continue to do that."

The match started like it was going to be longer than the roughly 90 minutes that it was. It wasn't until the 13th serve that a point was scored, which, as it turned out, was the only time Franklin led in the match.

"I've never seen it before where there were two full rotations before someone even scored a point," Diegel said. "There was some nice volleying. I was proud of our girls."

The Patriots, who defeated the Rocks in a three-game match the only time they met this season, rallied from a 4-1 deficit to make it 8-5 before Salem pulled away.

The Rocks (48-10-1) ran off five straight points on Jill Dombrowski's serve to make it 11-5 and rattled off four in a row after the Patriots had come back to within four at 11-7. Erica Stein put down the winning kills for Salem.

In the second game, there were nine sidouts in a row when Salem held a 6-1 lead and 11 straight with the score at 9-1. Franklin (39-15-1) closed to 12-7 before Salem finished the match.

Dombrowski had the honor of bolting the game-winning hit in the second game.

"It was close," Teeters said, "even though the score didn't show it. It was nice to have some other people step up when we needed it."

Nicole Boyd led all hitters with 12 kills for Franklin. Terra Morill had six kills and Andrea Kmet four. Angie Sillmon and Amanda Suder had 10 kills apiece for Salem.

Dombrowski had seven kills and led Salem's hitters with a .545 efficiency ratio. Andrea Pruett had five kills while Suder served a pair of aces.

There were two nice touches at Ann Arbor Huron's Riverdome. Diegel's predecessor at Franklin, Ann Hutchins, showed up to cheer her former charges on, and Wayne Memorial's team stuck around to cheer for Salem after it had been beaten by Franklin.
