Telford breaks Mercy record

Judy Telford set a school record in the discus and Angela Morris won three races Tuesday, but Farmington Hills Mercy was on the short end of a 68-60 score in girls track with visiting Dearborn Divine Child.

Telford threw the discus 120 feet, 9 1/2 inches. That was nine feet farther than her previous best this year and broke Jeanette Turner's 1990 school record of 120-3 1/2.

Morris won the 100, 200 and 400 dashes and anchored a Mercy victory in the 1,600 relay.

The Marlins were runners-up Friday in the Jackson Invitational. Morris was a triple winner in the same sprint events and ran the anchor leg of the winning 1,600 relay team.

Frank and Dayna Clemons. The 3,200 relay team of Holly Stockton, Melissa Traczyk, Karen Bockli and Katie Harris dropped four seconds off its time and placed third (10:40.4).

Clemons, Rebecca Abela, Lauren Turner and Nicole Taylor had their best time in the 400 relay, finishing fourth (53.8) and improving by 1/2 second.

The pole vault team of Turner, Tara Grider and Heidi Frank also was fourth (21-6).

North placed sixth in the 800 relay with Vicky Hand, Laura Hirtzel, Abela and Clemons running a season best of 1:53.7.

Mergener and Miller for first place in the 1,600 relay.
