Negotiating With God

I once believed that if I requested something from God, that I should give Him something in return. I would promise God that if things turned out my way, I would do something for Him. Perhaps, I could say some special prayer every day, or I would promise to be a better person by not sinning anymore. And although I never seemed to keep my promise, God was always faithful and got me through the various crises I was faced with.

Our Lord doesn't want more from us than just for each of us to be the best that we can be and to love and trust Him. God knows that we are sinful and weak and although He hates sin, He loves the sinner, and knows all of our needs and desires. God wants only what is right and good for us. Our offering to our Lord should be a devoted loving heart and our unending loyalty. The Bible tells us to ask and you shall receive, seek and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you.

Think carefully before you promise an offering to God.
Good News Bible Proverbs 20:25
