healthy and they're healthy, we should win this meet. We need to be at full strength to best people.

"We're hoping, the injuries and academic problems get taken care of, and we can run at full strength for the regional (Saturday at West Bloomfield) and the conference meet.

We want to get right back on it and finish up strong."

regional – the Shamrocks, host Pioneer and Aan Arbor Huron – are among the state's top seven teams, expressed confidence in his team's chances. "We've played Huron and Pioneer and lost to both, but we had some very close matches, so I really think the guys have been growing on the court. I'm pretty confident we'll have a good day Priday and am hoping for the best," he said.

"A toam would need to get everyone into the regional finals and two players to the semifinals to get 16 points for third. Other teams in the regional are Livonia's Churchill, Franklin and Stevenson, Westland John Glenn, Plymouth Salem and Belleville. As for the Catholic League tourney, Bozyk said he was a little bit surprised CC didn't have a league chump 'in at least one of the flights, since we were very competitive with (Rico) at the dual meet. One doubles match in the dual meet was 7-6, 7-6 while another went three sets, each
