Summer Entertainment

Concert venues get facelifts, and there's a slew of festivals

The first day of summer is June 21 but Detroit-area residents know the season officially begins on Friday, May 21, when Pine Knob Music Theatre in Independence Township opens with a concert by Natalie Merchant. Music fans will see several changes this year to Pine Knob and Meadow Brook Music Festival on the campus of Oakland University. Both venues are run by Palace Events preceded by Sports and Entertainment in Auburn Hills.

This season, more than $1 million in improvements have been made to Pine Knob including the main and auxiliary parking lots. The acoustics and the lawn's sound system have been enhanced. The number of pay phones at Pine Knob have been doubled, and a new ATM has been added to the East Entrance Plaza.

Meadow Brook also underwent a facelift. Facility improvements include: adding a new concessions stand and a marquee at University Drive/Walton Boulevard and Adams Road; refurbishing the exterior of all buildings; expanding the pavilion seating capacity and adding a waterfall. PS&E also revamped the pavilion's audio system, including a new lawn speaker system.

Along with Pine Knob and Meadow Brook comes a slew of festivals. Tickets to the last Lilith Fair Aug. 14-16 at Pine Knob, go on sale this weekend. Lollapalooza is taking yet another year off but will "concentrate on assembling the ultimate line-up for the millennium summer."

Organizers decided to postpone the tour until 2000 when they can re-establish Lollapalooza once again as "The Mightiest of all Summer Extravaganzas," according to a press release from The William Morris Agency.

The H.O.R.D.E. Festival and Further Festival are expected to announce dates next month. The House of Blues Smokin' Grooves tour may be up in smoke.

This year's summer concert season beyond Pine Knob and Meadow Brook. Chubb Park offers a variety of music ranging from jazz and blues to reggae, while individual communities offer their citizens tons of music.

The Birmingham Jazzfest '99 has secured July 22-24 as its dates with concerts at Shain Park and 12 Birmingham restaurants.

This year's lineup offers the most exciting and diverse talent ever presented at Birmingham Jazzfest. There's jazz for every taste — straight ahead, traditional, Afro-Cuban, contemporary, and smooth jazz. It will be performed by the best local, regional and national acts," said Alexander Zonjic, artistic director of Jazzfest '99.

This calendar gives detailed information about upcoming concerts, festivals and other major events. Tickets to the events may be purchased at the respective box offices, all Ticketmaster outlets, or by calling (248) 646-6668 to charge by phone.
