

Spartans win district title

The back of one T-shirt said: "One more time in '98." And the way two-time defending state champion Livonia Stevenson performed in a Division I district girls soccer final Friday, the Spartans are far from ready to relinquish their crown.

The Spartans improved to 12-1 overall with a 3-0 triumph over rival Livonia Churchill in a match played at Livonia Franklin.

All three goals came in the first half, one in the second minute of action and the other two during the final 1:09.

"We wanted to try and get back to where we've been the last two years, which is to be a sound team defensively and get on top of teams early," said Stevenson coach Jim Kimble, who cradled his fourth district championship trophy in a row. "And today we were able to get into our game plan fortunately."

The Spartans first goal was scored by sophomore Dana White off a corner kick from senior captain Sarah Wittrock.

"We've talked and talked about corner kicks all year," Churchill coach Chad Campau said. "We lost to Brighton at three corner kicks (3-2). The goal early is deflating, but off a corner kick it makes it even worse."

Churchill settled down after White's goal, but the Chargers found themselves on their heels.

Sophomore goalkeeper Jennifer Gabon, who stopped several point-blank shots, and freshman defender Sarah Phillips, who stopped four balls from going in herself, helped keep Stevenson off the board until sophomore Lindsay Guskic rammed home a rebound with just under two minutes to play.

Senior Julie Murray then made it 3-0 with just eight seconds left off a corner kick after Phillips crossed the first shot from stopping the line.

"During a five or six-minute span we didn't work our hardest and it cost us," Campau said. "Otherwise we did a pretty good job of limiting their opportunities. But Stevenson is a team that is phenomenal shape. And with their constant movement together, they're a tough team to beat."

Churchill, which bowed out at 9-6-1 overall, didn't put many shots on Stevenson goalkeeper Lesley Hooker.

The Chargers' best chance at scoring a goal came in the waning seconds of the game when Melissa Sultana's shot rang off the crossbar.

Otherwise, Stevenson's defense bottled up the high-scoring Kersten Conklin, who had scored 19 goals.

"We had Cheryl Fox marking Conklin and we let Andrea Slod sweep," Kimble said.

"Cheryl has shut down some of the state's best players — Anne Morrell (Plymouth Canton), Brigid Bowdell (Northville) and now Conklin. She thrives on the challenge."

It frees up Andrea, who is solid as a rock, in the back to play our system.

"Our second goal was to put pressure on their backs and we felt if we did that, we'd have opportunities to score."

Although Guskic is still recovering from a sore ankle, the Spartans don't lose much up front.

"Even with Guskic banged up, she's still dangerous," Kimble said. "Megan Urbats has been worshipping for us the last three weeks. She just has a sound, hard-working game."

And with Fox and Slod back there, and everybody else filling in their roles, this team still believes it can still make a run.

Stevenson advances to the South Lyon regional to play the Dearborn district champ Tuesday.

Salem nips N'ville in shootout

The final kicker, the Plymouth Salem player who had her team's fate in her hands, was Christen Shull.

Which is the way it should have been, as her coach, Doug Landefeld, put it: "She deserved it. She was the best player on the field for us."

Shull, a junior defender, was the Rocks' fifth shooter in the penalty kick round of overtime. Thron of her four teammates had converted.

Northville, which was hosting this Division I district semifinal game Thursday, had put two in the net behind

SOCCER

Salem keeper Jill Dombrowski.

Which meant if Shull made it, Salem would win. She did.

"We found a way to win," said a relieved, although not particularly pleased, Landefeld. "And that's what it's all about, isn't it?"

The victory, which improved the Rocks' record to 11-9-2 and put them in the district final Saturday against Plymouth Canton. Northville ends its season at 10-4-2.

"You can't let Salem have throw-ins deep in your end of the field," said Mustang coach Doug Lyon. "I'll cost you. But our players played well. We just had that one bad stretch."

Both teams had those types of spells. But until the overtime penalty kicks, Salem never had a lead.

Perseverance pays, however. With less than eight minutes left in regulation, Kristina Senich won a ball in the corner sent a cross into the box. Suzi Towne was at the end of it, heading the ball into the goal to knot it at 2-2 with 7:45 to play.

champion Birmingham Groves in a district final last year, had to play well to overcome the Blazers, according to Neff.

"I was very pleased with the kids' performance, and we'll see what happens," he said. "Ladywood is a very good team, and we had to work hard to keep control."

"If we had gone out there and not played hard, we could've easily have lost to them. The kids were up for it, and we're very happy we were able to pull it off."

"Ladywood did not drop back or give up at any time, even at the very end when it was obvious all they had a chance for was one goal. They're a good, hard-working team."

Logsdon echoed those words and is looking forward to the 2000 season.

"We improved throughout the year," she said, "and I think next year we'll be a team to watch out for because we're such a young team."
