

Who's who

Mercy High seniors graduate under star-filled skies Thursday

At the top: Valedictorian Jennifer Borowiec addresses the Mercy High School class of 1999 during commencement ceremonies Thursday night.

Nothing could be better than that feeling of completion, of being done. That's what graduation ceremonies are for and Mercy High School seniors kicked off the end-of-school season with their graduation Thursday night at Meadowbrook.

The high school's 54th commencement began with graduates singing America the Beautiful, followed by a welcome address by Sister Regina Marie Doelker, principal.

Denise Jenkins, Omnipoint Communications public relations manager, whose daughter graduated from Mercy in 1990, gave the commencement address, followed by a class farewell by valedictorian Jennifer Borowiec.
