

SYNOPSIS:

Garrelt Coast, a young man of New Coast, a young man of New Coast, and young man of New Coast, and the Coast of the Coast

CHAPTER VII.-(Continued.)

CHAPTER VII.—(Continued.)

His voice must have carried to the animal; be heard a whine, the quick padding of paws, and a buge Scotte colle pounded clumsily out of the mista, passed him within an arm's length, vanished and returned, whiring and circling, nose to ground, as if confused and unable to locate him, within an arm's length, vanished and returned, whiring and circling, nose to ground, as if confused and unable to locate him, with the uncernoded with wonder at its error all sightly. A pebble grated toward him foot. The house considerable toward him instantly and paused to account a first part of the part hite.

"Cataract." he said, releasing the og. "That's why he couldn't see e. . I wondered . . Helwhat now?"
Comforted and reassured, the dog

Comforted and reassured, the dog-had drawn away and fonumed its mysterious circling, nosing the earth with anxious whinings. Abruptly is paused, tense, lithe frame quivering, then made oft at a rapid trot in the direction whence it had appeared. A moment later the heartrending bowl walled out again.

Almost. unwillingly Coast followed, nerving himself against the discovery be feared to make.

Half a dozen steps, and he almost fell over the dog. He recoiled with a cry of horrified consternation.

'Applegard'...

fell over the dog. His recoiled with a cry of borrified consternation. "Appleyard!. "But it was not Approved to the construction of the rude village steen a man lay remain the bead being the construction of the rude village steen a man lay rude being bead, bits other limbs reputablely supraw! His bead, near which the collie aquatted, litting tismournful muzzle to the sky, was bare and thickly thatched with reddish hair.

The man had been murdered, foul-The man had been murdered, foul-ly slish by a means singular and unique outside the Orient. Deep buried in a crease round his threat Coast had seen a knotted loop or crimson silk wilpcord—the bowstring of the East. Above it the face was a grinning mask of agony and fear, dark with congested blood; a face that, none the leass—deeple those frightfully shadowed, blurred and swellos features—had unquestionably once been comely in the youthful lifsh way.

He rose and searched the ground for indications; of a struggle He found done. No confusional the prints about the dead man showed on the damp earth. 'Apparently the violing had been taken from behind, with any bear the confusional transfer of the confusi out warning. Tresolute, baffled, he lingered for er moment.

his side the dog howled deep

By his side the og hower deep and long.

He turned, halt-faint, and field 'the-place, bearing with him what he was not to forget for many a night; the pleture of the billed deg mourning full-mouthed beside the crumpled, lifeless Thing that had been its master, there in that nameless spot of death and desciption.

The horror of it crawled like deliving in his brain."

CHAPTER VIII.

"There's no some in this—none whatever!" Coast, spoke for the first time in twarp and interest in thunderation and, anyhow?"

He stood in thought, pursing his underlip between a thumb and fore finger, with alert to detect the clust to his bearings that was denied him, for all that the fog had thinned periodic properties. The stood in thought, pursing his brown and the stood in thought, pursing his braines, that was denied him, for all that the fog had thinned periodic properties. The stood in thought, pursing his braines, that was denied him, for all that the fog had thinned periodic properties. The stood in thought, pursing his more: that he was allowed. This much he kaper and one will be a form a seried. The was a street of the suppraction.

Before blim, presently, a wait started up out of the mist-bound earth, a low stone wall, grey where it was not green with lichea, and ran off inland, diverting the path to keep it company. Some distance farther on a recond wall, counterpart of the other continued or contin round toward the front of the house, in no less measure. She, too, had his footsteps notseless on the sod. By the corner he stopped as thought he had run against an invisible barrier.

The Man Had Been Murdered.

Ten feet distant a woman stood in the gateway of a fence of helings, the distance was the sole of his footsteps notseless on the sod.

By the corner he stopped as though ne had run aguinst an invisible barrier.

Ten feet distant a woman stood in the gateway of a fence of palings. Half turned away from him and more, so that only the rounded curves of cheek and chin were visible, as the only the rounded curves of cheek and chin were visible, as the other touched bery clark with along the control of the con thought that did not resure about units woman, not a line of whose gracious pose, not a tress of whose matchless hair, not a tint of whose yonderful coloring but was more intimate to his memory than his own features.

She was—she had been—Katherine Thaxler.

CHAPTER IX.

CHAPTER IX.

CHAPTER IX.

"I might lask as much of you." I might lask as much of you." I might lask as much of you." I might lask as much of you." "Yes, of you." ale replied quietly, turn and make good his encaps before she became aware of him. But, as the constant of the shock of recognition had pasied his will, he remained moreless. Con-is he?"

He saw her recoil from his advance, but whether from fear or repugnance he could not guess. When she replied it was with evident dif-

"He?"
Impatient, he waved aside what seemed a palpable quibble: she must know very well what he meant. "What are you doing here, in this place, dlone? Why did he leave you here?" He moved nearer, his voice rising to vehemence. "Why are you here, Kathestice?"

Michigan Land Values Double. MICHIGAN Census Gives State Increase of 57.7

BREVITIES

Altegan—James W. Smith, when a register of murdering his consus Gives 7 sixte increase of 57.7 in Ten' Years.

The thirteents census of the United States above in its statistics of agriculture in Michigan that the state ranks twenty-first in land area and against was for damphere. Miss. Gora gight in population, for which the against was for damphere. Miss. Gora principal many present in 1206,090 farms against was for trail in the February term. Mrs. Smith's didner of the piles of the illness of Smith's mother of the piles of the illness of Smith's mother of the piles of the illness of Smith's mother of the piles of the tillness of Smith's mother of the piles of the tillness of Smith's mother of the piles of the tillness of Smith's mother of the piles of the tillness of Smith's mother of the piles of the tillness of Smith's mother of the piles of the tillness of Smith's didners of the state of 30,787; per smith of the piles of the tillness of Smith's mother of the ti are Smith's two sons, both under the years of age.

Ann Arbor—Denn Jl. E. Cooley recolved a letter from Prof. J. R. Allen, who is in Turkey on a year's R. Allen, who is in Turkey on a year's leave of absence, which sets at rost the repeated rumors—that Professor Allen, will resign from Michigan's faculty at the close of this year and accept the demanthy of Hoberts college engineering, school in Turkey. From the set of the set engineering eshool in Tursoy. Feeson Alten Says: "Threey is an interesting place to wisk! but it is made in the resting place to wisk! but it is made in the resting place to it. You will see the best in Anni Arbor next year. The best in t dress.

Battle Creek.—Assistant Engineer
Adna Fuller of etgine company
No. 2, pho, nearly gave his life
to save that of Margaret Proseley, who was suffocated in her bed, as
removed from Nichold hospita, to als home, He will be given an indefinite vacation with full pay, while there is talk of an effort to secure a Carnegie redal for him. Fuller made three at tempts before he findilly reached the dying sith. After habding her out a window, he fell back hyparently dead.

dring girl. After handling ber out a window, he fell back hyparently dead.

Lansing—Through action of the Supreme court the rame of Sidney J. Alexander of Detfolt was stricken from the rolls of distorneys and he is disbarred from futher practice in any court of record in this state, in 1967. Alexander passed the light requirements laid down by the state board of law examiners and was later permitted by a justice of the supreme court to stign the attolneys roll in the clerk's office and take the oath.

Ann Arbor.—Persident Snyder of the Michigan Agricultural collega. President McNair of McNair of McNair of McNair of McNair of McNair of the United State of Michigan are to bare an abeference at the Hotel Pontcharten to the matter of dupil-cation of bearing in this state. This conference is held at the suggestion of Governor Osborn.

Lansing—Insurances Commissioner Palmer Stated that

Lansing.—Insurance Commissioner Palmer stated that about 50 unauthorized for insurance companies prohibited from doling business in Michigan under the law passed by the last legislature have hald their fee and become authorized companies in Michigan. Many of them are the so-called heart of the last legislature have hald their fee and become authorized companies and the state has received about $100,000 in fees from them.

Three Rivers.—Victor Levers, aged tronty-four. drunk carbolic said following a quarter with his wife over her purchase of a suit, to wair in memory of her brother recently deed and for which her mither had given hor the money. The man's life was saved by prompt medical sustainment of the state of the profit chirismia tree blaze, the profit chirismia chirismia tree blaze, the profit chirismia chirismia chirismia chirismi

THE MARKETS

42 - F. 1. ewes. $100.25.

Catters: 14.500.25.5.

Detroit—Wheat: Cash No. 2 red, $411.

Preventier opened at $50. truched $50.4

Corr. Cash No. 2.612. No. 4 white $1.000.1

Corr. Cash No. 2.612. No. 4 white $1.000.1

Corr. Cash No. 2.612. No. 4 white $1.000.1

Corr. Cash No. 2.612. No. 2 white $1.000.1

Corr. Cash No. 2 white $1.000.1

Corr. Cash No. 2.612. No. 2 white $1.000.1

C

GENDRAL MARKETS.

Firmners continues to be the feature of the masket for dairy products and everything is effected. In difficult to the masket for dairy products and everything is effected in difficult to the products and everything is effected in difficult to the product of the product of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures all blood humors, all eruptions, clears the complexion, creates an appetite, aids ion, creates an appente, aids digestion, relieves that tired feeling, gives vigor and vim.

Get it today in usual liquid, form or chocolated tablets called Sarsatabo.

Genuine must bear Signature

Breut Tood THICK, SWOLLEN GLANDS that make a horse Wheexe, the Thick Wind or Choke-down, can be removed with

GOT THE LETTERS MIXED

Clergyman's Mistake Resulted in Giv-ing Decided Surprise to Digni-fied Archbishop.

fied Archbishop.

One of the most amusing stories which the Hon. London and the Hone London the London the Hone London the Londo you name."—London Til-Elts.

Not for Earthly Ears.
Dottor Reed, a minister, was opening the Sanday morning service at his church with the esnal prayer, while he was in the midst of it a stranger entered the church and took a seat far bead was praying in a low mote, and he sears for a while, called the control Reed was praying in a low mote, and he sears for a while, called unit. "Pray louder, Doctor Reed, I can't bear you."

Doctor Reed paused, opened his eyes and turned them around until they rested on the man in the rear. Then he sald: "I was not addressing you, sir; I was speaking to God."—London Watchdog.

Touchine.

Jennie—Everything he touches seems to turn to gold.

Jim—Yes; he touched me today for a sovereign.—London Opinion.

