On the heels of Saturday's storm with 70 mile per hour winds and lightning to boot, Sunday's weather was perfect for the 6th Annual Family Fun Day in Farmington Hills' Heritage Park. "The weather was very cooperative," said Herman Smith, recreation specialist in the city's Department of Special Services. "We had a decent turnout."

Under mild skies, families arrived at Heritage Park to have some plain, old-fashioned fun.

"We try to set aside a Sunday where families can get together and do some things together," Smith said.

And there was plenty to do: stage shows, hay rides, fun equipment to play on and of course, food.

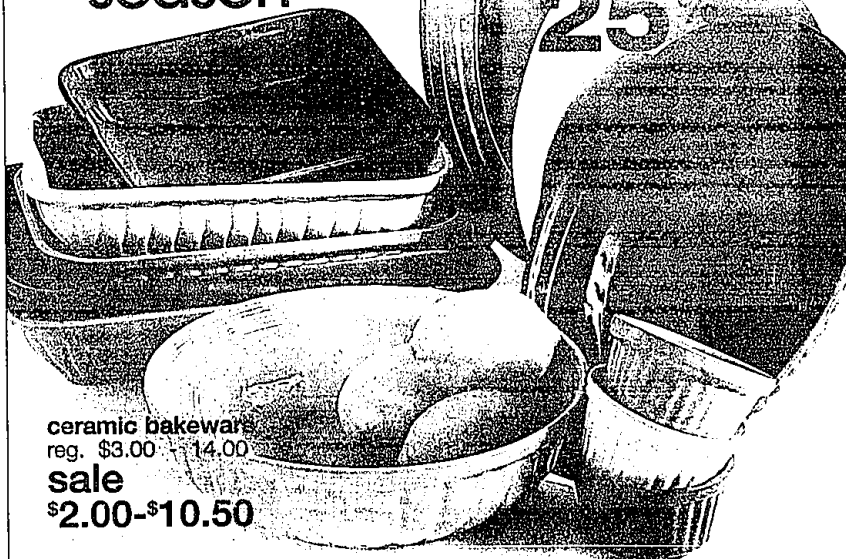

Kids got a chance to play on a giant slide and run through a caterpillar maze, while the adults at their side were entertained by a two-piece steel band - which closed the day at about 5 p.m. Also on tap for entertainment were magicians, a juggler and a yo-yo whiz.

"Most of the entertainment is what adults would also enjoy," Smith said, adding that no one was left without something to do.

Midway through the afternoon, Miss Farmington, Leslie Reinhold, who was crowned during the Farmington Area Founders Festival, signed her contract making her new reign official.
