

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF LIFELONG LEARNING

The College of Lifelong Learning is constantly adapting to suit your educational and training needs. We deliver the outstanding programs of the University in both suburban and urban settings to the traditional and non-traditional student. Dean Robert L. Carter is committed to ensuring quality education and training that is relevant in today's workplace. To achieve that goal, CLL takes on new challenges and helps students to do the same.

LEADERSHIP

Our Interdisciplinary Studies Program offers flexible degree options so you can meet your learning and career objectives. Bachelor degree programs are designed for students who have little, or no, previous college experience, and for Associate degree holders. Graduate students can concentrate in historical and cultural studies, gerontology, or use a combination of ISP classes with other University classes to make your own concentration.

CONVENIENCE

Close to where you live or work—The College of Lifelong Learning centers are located in Eastpointe, Farmington Hills, Harper Woods, Detroit, Madison Heights and Clinton Township. Take classes during the day, evenings, on the weekend, through interactive video or even via television. For decades, Wayne State has provided students with the option of taking class one day a week, or as many days as your schedule permits.

ALTERNATIVES

For those who might not meet the regular admission requirements of Wayne State University, we have the Division of Community Education (DCE). DCE helps you with admission and financial aid and provides excellent counseling and tutoring services. For those who just simply enjoy the experience of learning, the College of Lifelong Learning provides several options for you to take classes from Wayne State's nationally recognized faculty.

As a comprehensive, national research university Wayne State provides you with unrivaled opportunities. We offer over 350 degree programs. There are nearly 32,000 students attending Wayne State — over 7,000 taking classes at our off-campus centers. These students and our nearly 200,000 alumni will tell you that Wayne State can give you the advantage you need. The College of Lifelong Learning provides access for anyone who wants to connect. You make the choice, we will provide everything else.
