FRAUD

The following are police and fire incidents that occurred in Farm-ington and Farmington Hills dur-ing the past week.

FAUD Farmington Hills: A 38-year-old Datroit woman was arrested Tuesday afternoon after reportedly attempting to use stolen money orders to pur-chase travelors' checks and exchange the money for French france at AAA, 38761 12 Mile. A police report stated that AAA checked on the money orders and cond that 3,600 blank money orders wdre reported stolen while on transit to a Datroit store in July 1995, and that they al computer. Liquor violation Farmington Hills: A 17-year-old Farmington Hills man ad a 17-year-old Livonia woman wore ticketed for litegail possessing alcohol Tuse-day at Woodcreek Elementary, 28400 Harwich. They were roportedly sharing a 40-ounce bottle of beer at the side of the school. Neither was cited under zero tolerance laws because their blood alcohol lavois wore both under .02 as shown on breath al computer.

1 · · · · ·

COP CALLS

1.20

gun, a $200 shotgun, a $400 paintball gun, a $450 flatbed scanner, a $425 printer, an $125 leaf blower and a $2,500 person-

DISORDERLY CONDUCT

Farmington Hills: A 43-year-old Farmington Hills man was questioned by police Wednesday morning after Hills man was questioned by police Wednesday morning after witnesser propried that he had O.E. Dupackel Middle he had dropped off by a parent reported seeing him urinate on the grass and toid police he ward to gran had grand by a parent reported had grand by a parent reported heading around the school. The man was wared by at assistant principal at Dunckel to stay off school grounds or face a tres-passing complaint. NEALEXT COMPLAINT

NEGLECT COMPLAINT Farmington Hills: Police Wednesday investigated a residence in the 27000 block of Echo Valley in response to an e-mail letter from an Ontario

Expert

Liners

Serving S.E. Since 1974

Bathtub

164

woman detailing the possible abuse and neglect of her sister-in-law. A police report stated that the woman mentioned in the letter was living with her the letter was living with her son. She reportedly smalled as though she hadn't bathed in days, appeared frail and her hair was unkempt. She told police she was trying to move into a nursing home and that she did-n't get enough to cat. Adult Pro-tective Sarvices was contacted and an investigation is forthcom-ing, according to police.

BOMB THREAT

cor Institute.

in Royal Oak.

EORE THELAY Farmington Hills: Someone reportedly threat-ened to "blow up" a Shell station at 29370 Middlabolt Wednesday because of an incident the previ-ous day involving an employee, a 35-year-old Waterford man, toid police a group of teenagers came

OBITUARIES

member. Mr. Wise is survived by wife,

Mary Lee; sons, Paul, Mark (Gail) and James (Josett); daughters, Suzanne (Greg) Milosch and Mary Kay (Mark)

Bortolotti; sister, Jean (John) Cairns; and grandchildron, Paul, in and one attempted to steal candy the provious day. He said he asked them to leave. They returned the next day, and one reportedly said. "I have bombs and Til blow you and your s- up with you in it." The store employee was advised to call 911 if the customers returned.

MINOR IN POSSESSION

MINOR IN POSSESSON Farmington Hills: A 20-year-old Farmington Hills man was tickedd for minor in possession early Thursday on Independence Court near Lin-coln Gillowing a traffic stop. His blodd alcohol levol was .00, according to a breath test.

pomestic violekce Farmington Hills: A 30-year-old Farmington Hills man was arrested Thurs-day morning for domestic vio-Please see POLICE, A7 Luxury Retirement Community. Large, Stylish Apartments with Full-sized Kitchens RUTH L ERKERT Services for Ruth E. Erkort, 74, formerly of Farmington Hills, were hold Spt. 25 at Cross of Christ Lutheran Church in Bloomfield Hills with buril at Glen Eden Cometory in Livonia. Mrs. Erkert was born Nov. 5. 1924, in Toldo, Ohio, and didd Sopt. 21 in Auburn Hills. She worked as a logal secretary for Larson & Herna Law Firm in Farmington Hills and was a ddd-iented momber of Cross of Christ Lutheran Church in Bloomfield Hills. Fine, Restaurant Style Dining Full-time Social Director Dynamic Activities Program 1 Scheduled Transportation 24-Hour Emergency System r. Weekly Linen and Housekeeping Assisted Living Services On-site METFOR ONF AFTORDAULE MONTHEX FLF. þ, The. Hills Mrs. Erkert is survived by GRAND COURT daughters, Susan (Lawrence) Jackson and Jan (Brent Lewy) jé. 45182 West Rd. • Novi, Michigan 48377 www.grandcourdlifestyles.com Erkert: son. Tom (Von) Erkert; sisters, Myrna Zuch and Helen White; and grandchildren, Car-rio Jackson, Nicholas Johnson . Place send me more information on The Grand Court. Name Address CALL Chy: (248) 669-5330 Zip: State: FOR A FREE Pho BROCHURE OR mail to The Grand Court + ($181 West Hd. + Novi, Michigan 48377 PERSONAL TOUR ≙ CALL NOW!

have been showing up at area retailers since then. The Detroit woman was listed as one of four women who had been attempting to purchase travelers' checks with those money orders. The woman had attempted to cash four $500 money orders. She was also ticketed for parking in a handicapped parking space with-out a permit.

out a permit. BRRAN-N Formington Hills: Someons reportedly broke into and ransacked a home in the 25000 block of 10 Mile by remov-ing a wall unit air-conditioner. Itema taken included a $300 air-conditioner, a $400 9-mm hand-

Discover Novi's Most Affordable

Mile Rong, Redinit Vorto. EDWARD 2. KUINESU Borvices for Edward Zenon Kulinski, 72, of Farmington Hills, were held Sopt. 22 at Thayer-Rock Funceral Home in Parmington with the Rav. Daniel Cavo officiating, Burial was in Pine Lake Cemetery in Bloom-field Hills. Mr. Kulinski was born March 10, 1927, in Dotroit and died Sept. 19 in Farmington Hills. He was a senior tax attorney for Ford Mator Co. and a World War II Navy voteran. He was a mom-ber of the Storra Club, the Michi-gan Bar Association and various an Bar Association and various environmental groups. He is aurived by wife, Inez; daughters, Linda (Robort) Niel-son and Laura (Vincent) Kulinski ki-Hasell; brother, Dr. Eugene Kulinski; eister, Stophanie Zalinski; eister, Stophanie Zalinski; and grandchildren, Bobby, Elisabeth, Christine and Ryan. Memorial contributions may be made to Angela Hospice, 14100 Newburgh Road, Livonia 48154.

Sarah, Bradley, Anne Marie and Katherine.

and Jonathan Erkert. She is pro-ceded in death by husband, James. Memorial contributions may Matherine. Memorial contributions may be made to Our Lady of Lorotto Catholic Church, 25700 W. Six Mile Road, Redford 48240. be made to the Karmanos Can-Arrangements made by A.J. Desmond & Sons Funeral Home EDWARD Z. KULINSKI Desmond & Sons Functal Home in Royal Oak. H. CLHT WHSE Services for H. Clint Wise, 69, of Farmington Hills, wore hold Sept. 24 at Our Lady of Loretto Catholic Church in Redford with the Rev. Joseph Espor officiat-ing. Burdia was in Holy Sepul-chre Cemetery in Southildi. Mr. Wise was born Dec. 24, 1920; in Highland Park and died Sept. 20 at Beatsford Hospital in Farmington Hills. He was the owner of Wise Automotive Repair Services Inc. and a Kore-an Conflict Army votoran. He was a member of Our Lady of Loretto Catholic Church in Red-ford, St. Francis K of C In Farm-ington Hills and A V.F.W. life maber.