Too Many Things To Do
In today's world, it seems that we are all involved with too many things to manage and do, and over the years we may have accumulated more possessions than we need or can reasonably take care of. Each day I will usually make a list of the things that I want to get done during the day, and it seems that no matter how much I may get accomplished, each day I have another list. Occasionally, I may even get discouraged because there never seems to be enough hours in the day, but surprisingly, there is a lot of satisfaction in crossing off those items on the list that do get completed.
If I had to choose between being too busy or not busy enough, I must admit that I would rather be too busy. Life is exciting and good; however, we shouldn't let our busyness separate us from God. The Bible tells us to work hard and cheerfully at all we do, just as though we were working for the Lord. Every so often during our busy day, it is only right that we should pause and take time to praise and thank the Lord for His love and goodness toward us.
My heart took delight in all my work, this was the reward for all my labor.
NIV Ecclesiastes 2:10
