Farmington Hills:ASSAULT

An 18-year-old Trenton woman was arrested and jailed Friday for felonious assault following an incident with a 25-year-old Farmington Hills man. A police report stated that police were responding to a report of domestic disputes in the 26000 block of Independence.

The man said they were arguing because he had changed the locks. Police said they found broken glasses, knocked down furniture, blood stains and a variety of sharp knives in disarray throughout the apartment. The man had multiple scratches on his face and neck area and a cut to his right hand.

Farmington Hills:MAN ATTACKED

A 45-year-old Dearborn man was allegedly attacked by an acquaintance Friday at Quigley Industries, 38850 Grand River. A police report stated that the incident stemmed from the Dearborn man's refusal to lend a screwdriver to an approximately 40-year-old man. Later, the man reportedly grabbed the Dearborn man with both hands in a choke hold around his throat, lifted him up and threw him to the ground. He sought medical attention.

Farmington Hills:3 ARRESTED IN DRUG BUST

Three Farmington Hills residents were arrested Friday after police, assisted by SONIC officers, executed a narcotics search warrant at a residence in the 21000 block of St. Francis. Confiscated were two baggies of marijuana from the pants pockets of a 35-year-old and a 17-year-old man, both of Farmington Hills.

Also confiscated were one marijuana cigar from an infant car carrier owned by a 35-year-old Farmington Hills woman, a brown paper bag containing marijuana and a hand scale from the master bedroom and miscellaneous paraphernalia, also from the master bedroom. Also confiscated was $496, found on the 17-year-old.

The 35-year-old man has a prior conviction for felony delivery/manufacture of a controlled substance and a prior conviction for possession of marijuana in Livonia, both in 1995, according to police.

Farmington Hills:DRUG, ALCOHOL ARRESTS

A 24-year-old Farmington man was arrested for operating under the influence of liquor early Saturday following a traffic stop near Grand River and Colgate. A breath test showed a .15 blood alcohol level, exceeding Michigan's legal limit of .10. His passenger, and the vehicle's owner, a 25-year-old Farmington Hills man, was cited for possession of marijuana, possession of drug paraphernalia and for having an improper license plate. The 24-year-old had a prior related conviction from Novi in 1997, according to police.

A 28-year-old Saginaw man was cited for operating under the influence of liquor early Saturday morning following a traffic stop in the 37000 block of Jefferson. A breath test showed a .18 blood alcohol level. He had two prior operating while intoxicated convictions on his driving record, according to police.

A 41-year-old Farmington man was arrested early Sunday morning for driving while intoxicated following a traffic stop at Inkster and 11 Mile. A police report stated the man was discovered sleeping in his vehicle and attempted to drive away. A breath test showed a .15 blood alcohol level. The man had a prior drunk driving arrest in 1998.

A 38-year-old Holly woman was arrested for operating under the influence of liquor and for not having her vehicle registration on her person early Sunday morning following a traffic stop on Orchard Lake near Bond. A breath test showed a .19 blood alcohol level.

Farmington Hills:BUSINESS BREAK-IN

Someone reportedly smashed the front window and ransacked the interior of Arc 1, 32507 Northwestern Highway sometime after 11 p.m. Sept. 24. Taken were an estimated 37 computer systems of undisclosed value, a $1000 TV/VCR combo, three $750 laser printers, a $500 cash register and printer, numerous computer accessories, 25 satellite dishes, a $3,000 copy machine and 45 phone cards.

The circuit breakers had been turned off and the alarm wires cut.

An employee told police the lights had been left on when he closed at 10 p.m. but another employee said the lights were off when he drove by at about 11 p.m. The employee told police a 25-year-old West Bloomfield man was acting "suspiciously" earlier in the day and a car full of teenagers was spotted "cruising" near the business later that night just before closing.

Attempt by police to lift fingerprints was unsuccessful.

Farmington Hills:SUPPLIES TAKEN

A supply shed behind North Farmington High, 32900 13 Mile, was reportedly broken into sometime between Wednesday and Saturday. Entry was reportedly gained by cutting the padlocks, which were found on the ground and by drilling through another padlock that had secured a cabinet inside the trailer. Taken were three chainsaws worth $4,500, a $1,500 generator, $600 copper tubing and a $100 vacuum. No prints were found, according to police.

Farmington Hills:TRESPASSING

A 20-year-old Farmington Hills man was cited and taken into custody Saturday for trespassing on private property at Harrison High, 29995 12 Mile. A police report stated that school administrators had asked police to intervene if the man tried to enter school property because of an incident with another student earlier that week. After police told him this, he reportedly continued driving into the parking lot, where he was stopped by police and taken into custody.

A 47-year-old Clinton man was taken into custody Sunday morning for aggravated stalking. During the incident, police also recovered a plastic bag containing marijuana and the letters that were reportedly used in the stalking case, which he had reportedly written to a 27-year-old Farmington Hills woman.

The man reportedly told police "that the letter would create fear in the victim for her safety if she did not accept his invitation to attend church and join him in becoming immortal" and that she would die as a result of that fear within the next 12 years, but not by his hand.

Farmington Hills:LARCENY

A 50-year-old Farmington Hills man and a 47-year-old Southfield man were cited for attempted larceny Sunday near a Marathon gas station, 29450 Nine Mile. A police report stated the two men had attempted to put used tires from the gas station's tire rack on their own vehicle.

Farmington Hills:FIGHT BETWEEN BROTHERS

Two brothers reportedly got into a fight Sunday afternoon in a parking lot in the 20000 block of Goldsmith. The victim, a 38-year-old Farmington Hills man, told police that his brother, a 37-year-old also of Farmington Hills, punched him in the face, apparently because he didn't like the way he caused the motorcycle to away while he was riding it as a passenger on their way home from a bar.

The victim told police he wouldn't fight back because his brother had an inoperable brain tumor. The 37-year old, who initiated the meeting with his brother, and his mother, a 58-year-old Farmington Hills woman, reportedly both had personal protection orders against the other brother. The 37-year-old was arrested for domestic violence and the other brother was treated for a facial cut at Botsford Hospital.

Farmington Hills:FALSE REPORTS

A 55-year-old Huntingdon Woods woman was cited Sunday for reportedly falsely summoning police and fire vehicles to Border's Books & Music, 30995 Orchard Lake. A police report stated the woman told Border's employees, who had asked her to leave, that she was ill and needed medical attention for pancreatitis.

When the Farmington Hills Fire Department arrived, the woman was found sitting outside at a cafe table smoking a cigarette. The employees told police the woman had been fumbling with her purse inside the store and had dropped a blue pill and three cigarettes.

A restaurant worker at Anita's Kitchen told the police officer during the incident that the same woman had been begging for money and food at the restaurant.

Upon examining the woman, firefighters determined there was no medical emergency and that she was trying to get rid of a medical facility, as she had seven times in the Hills since 1998.

She also had 46 similar complaints in Oakland County, Royal Oak, Bloomfield Township, Southfield, Birmingham, Beverly Hills, Berkley, Troy, Franklin, Bloomfield Hills and the Farmington Hills Fire Department, according to police.
